WAR TALKED IN JAPAN AS BAN RESULT

People Are Divided, However,
Over American Exclusion Act

GOVERNMENT IS FOR PEACE

Chiefs Seek to Avoid Break in Trade Relations

TOKIO—(Associated Press)—Recall of Ambassador Hanihara is not contemplated by the Japanese government, at least at present, Premier Kiyoura told American correspondents today after a meeting of the cabinet.

TOKIO—(Associated Press)—Talk of military action as a result of the United States exclusion legislation is ridiculous, however much congress has wounded Japanese pride, Lieutenant General Ichisuke Tsuno, vice minister of war, said in an interview today with the newspaper Yomiuri.

"It would be folly at this juncture," he continued, "to follow the Chinese example and throw stones at the American embassy. This would be a boomerang to Japan. We must take this experience as a bitter but beneficial pill which may cure our internal ills and distresses."

DEEP SENTIMENTAL HURT
TOKIO—(Associated Press)—Despite reactions are coming from business men whose views on American exclusion were expressed by the action of the Tokyo Chamber of Commerce yesterday. Resolutions of the Tokyo chamber were addressed not only to American bodies, but also to the government. They urged further efforts to conciliate America and cause a reversal of congressional action on exclusion.

The renewed decline of the yen and drops of Japanese bonds on the New York market are causing some alarm in the business world altho the majority are confident that these phenomena are temporary. The leading commercial elements, while admitting the deep sentiments that are determined not to permit the exclusion action of congress to damage trade relations with America which are considered most vital for Japan.

The jingo newspapers appeared with fresh outbursts this morning. The Kokumin says:

"The Japanese people must prepare for whatever sacrifices the adjustment of the situation demands."

The Yamato states:

"The nation must decide now whether Japan will submit to this insult from America, or show the world that Japan is the last nation to tolerate a national disgrace."

The case is hopeless," says the Nichi Nichi. "The question has become the gravest in Japanese foreign relations. How can peace in the Pacific be safeguarded if Japan's conciliatory attitude is ignored. It is time for Japan to shoulder the wrongs of the colored peoples."

COOLIDGE STUDIES ACT
WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—Having brought its immigration bill into conformity with the House measure at points where wide differences had been predicted, the senate went into the concluding phases of its debate today with action expected before adjournment.

President Coolidge, meanwhile, continued his study of the diplomatic questions raised by the adoption of Japanese exclusion provisions by both chambers, but has given no indication of his probable course when the final measure is presented to him for approval or veto.

An amendment by Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, providing preferential consideration for farmers and farm laborers in immigration quotas was pending when debate was resumed today under an agreement limiting each senator to ten minutes on the bill as a whole and on each proposed change.

The exclusion provisions in the senate and house bills are, in effect, identical.

NOT SEEKING NOMINATION
BEACH CITY, Ohio—Senator Samuel Ralston, Indianapolis, in a letter to Postmaster A. E. Wingate, a boyhood friend, said he was not seeking the nomination for president, but "if what seems to be impossible should happen, I will play the part of a patriot and perform my duty to the best of my ability."

McADOO ENDORSED
CLEVELAND—The Association of Railway Men of Franklin co has endorsed William G. McAdoo for the Democratic presidential nomination. Wilbur D. Wilkins, Ohio McAdoo manager, declared in a statement today.

OUTLAW GOES TO HIS DEATH WITH SMILE ON FACE

Notorious Bandit Pays Penalty In Electric Chair at Little Rock for Career of Crime Extending Over Last Decade—3 Others Executed—6 to Die

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — (United Press) — "Diamond Joe" Sullivan, last of the southwest's notorious outlaws, went to his death in the electric chair here today—Good Friday—without an outward sign of the "yellow streak" attributed to him by underworld associates.

The prisoner walked to the chair with an air of gay carelessness and ease that astounded spectators. He maintained his calm and unconcerned attitude as the adjustments were made and until the switch was turned on.

At 5:37 a. m. a bolt of electricity, 2,500 volts strong, was sent thru his body and he paid the penalty for a career of crime and banditry extending over the last decade. He was electrocuted for the specific crime of slaying a Little Rock detective last year.

Because he was the only one of a long list of outlaws who ranged Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma and Arkansas in the last 20 years to meet death in an electric chair or on the scaffold, fellow crooks passed around the word that Sullivan was yellow—afraid to take a chance of being killed "with his boots on."

Whether "Diamond Joe" was fearless or yellow became a subject of bitter controversy in police and outlaw circles.

DEATH WARRANT READ
As Warden Evans entered the death cell and read the warrant of execution as the first streaks of dawn began to show thru the narrow barred window, there was no sign on the gunman's face. He listened attentively and witnesses thought there was even a trace of relief showing in the prisoner's eyes.

There was a faint, sardonic smile on his lips.

Sullivan took his place in the death chair with no show of emotion. He placed his wounded arm—shattered by an accidental discharge of Emory Connell's revolver following their escape from the prison—across his lap and looked up into the face of the Catholic priest who had been constantly at his side. As the death room attendants adjusted the straps to his legs and arms and braced his body against the shock which was to come, the priest intoned a prayer of mercy.

The desperado repeated it, in a low, calm voice until the tightening of the "face mask" silenced him.

"My Jesus, mercy."

Those were Sullivan's last words, as the "juice" struck him.

He was pronounced dead one minute later.

"He sure wasn't yellow," whispered a detective who witnessed the execution.

TWO HANGED
CHICAGO—(United Press)—Lucius Doltan and Henry Wilson, negroes, were hanged here today for the murder of Vincent Skiba here several weeks ago.

Wilson's neck was broken when the trap was sprung and he died almost instantly.

It was 16 minutes before physicians pronounced Doltan dead.

Doltan and Wilson shot Skiba when he tried to arrest them for committing a robbery.

DIES IN CHAIR
OSSINING, N. Y. — (Associated Press)—Reuben Norkin was electrocuted in Sing Sing prison last night for assisting Abraham Becker in the murder of Becker's wife whose body was found near Norkin's welding shop in the Bronx.

Norkin was convicted after police obtained a signed statement from him that he had acted as a lookout for Becker while the latter knocked his wife unconscious and then buried her alive in a lime-filled pit.

Becker was electrocuted last December.

As the guards were about to strap him in the chair Norkin said "my only crime is keeping a secret."

SIX TO DIE
NEW ORLEANS—(Associated Press)—To save the lives of his five companions one of the six men sentenced to be hanged at Amite May 1, for the murder of Dallas manager, declared in a statement today.

INDIANA MAN IS HELD BY LIMA POLICE

Grand Larceny Charge to be Preferred, is Claim

SHERIFF CROSSON ASSISTS

Warrant is Out for Another as Confession Result

Carl Windbigler, 26, Marion, Ind., was captured here Thursday night by Sheriff Harvey Crosson and Officer Bruce Sadders and is held by Lima police on a charge of grand larceny of an automobile owned by Paul Goge, 617 S. Elizabeth-st.

Thomas Ballard, 30, a companion of Windbigler, is held by police as a material witness pending arrest of one other person suspected as a member of the alleged auto theft ring.

Paul Windbigler, 22, of Wabash or Marion, Ind., is wanted by local police in connection with the theft of the automobile and also on a petty larceny charge. Indiana authorities were notified of the warrant issued here and are exerting efforts to capture Windbigler.

GOKE'S SATURDAY
Goke's automobile was stolen last Saturday night, and according to an alleged confession made by Ballard, it was driven to Marion, Ind., where the license plates were changed and tags stolen from an automobile.

Carl Windbigler started back to Lima, accompanied by Ballard who claimed he did not know at the time the machine was stolen. The Indiana license tags were on the machine. Four miles east of the city on the Windy rd the parked car attracted the attention of residents and Sheriff Crosson and police were notified.

Officials drove out and met the machine on the Lafayette rd just west of Allen-co infirmary. Crosson and Sadders followed the pair to the city where they were stopped. When Windbigler was unable to produce a bill of sale he and Ballard were taken to police headquarters.

Investigation of automobile records and stolen machines indicated, police say, that the automobile was stolen from Paul Goke. A charge of grand larceny of an automobile was filed against Windbigler. Ballard will be freed, police say, as he had no part in the theft.

HOME DYNAMITED

Stuebenville Dry Agent's Residence Partly Wrecked

STUEBENVILLE—(Associated Press)—An attempt was made early today to blow up the home of Dry Agent John Cole here, a bomb being exploded in front of his house.

Windows within a radius of five blocks were broken, several nearby houses damaged, but as far as can be learned, no one was seriously injured. Cole's house was not badly damaged.

About six months ago Cole's house was almost completely wrecked by a bomb. He is the most active dry agent in Jefferson-co and he and his family have been frequently threatened with death, police say.

Provisions will be made later for special entertainment for wives of the firemen, many of whom are expected to attend the convention.

CHICKEN NUISANCE CAUSE OF ARREST THREATS MADE BY POLICE CHIEF LANKER

Warning to chicken owners to keep them roosted up or else he exposed to arrest was issued Friday by Police Chief T. A. Lanker in connection with the many complaints received at police headquarters on the chicken nuisance.

Garden planters lead in the fight against chickens running at large. Complaints are filed by them almost daily at headquarters, and unless the law is obeyed Lanker warns that arrests will follow as the chicken nuisance is a time worn occurrence here.

WOMAN FLOGGED

Oklahoma Resident Threatens Revenge on Assaultants

TULSA, Okla.—(United Press)—Mrs. Georgia Thomas, pretty 24-year-old wife of a cigar dealer here, today threatened revenge on a man and woman who horsewhipped and beat her last night.

"This is my own affair, and I am going to settle it in my own way," she said, in refusing to give to police the names of her attackers.

"My friends are after them now and believe me, if they catch them, there will be sad news."

Mrs. Thomas, two years ago, kidnapped and horsewhipped "Billy" Dailley, a manicurist, whom she accused of intimacy with her husband.

Screams of the victim as the lash was applied late last night brought neighbors to the scene. Police were summoned, but before they arrived the "party" had broken up and Mrs. Thomas was carried to her bed where she nursed severe bruises and cuts.

CITY IS SCoured FOR THUGS

Police Search Here for Desperate Detroit Fugitives

Two desperate fugitives from justice wanted at Detroit, Mich., by U. S. department of justice officials were the object of a search here Wednesday and Thursday night by Lima police after word had been received that the two were in the city.

Described by J. B. Carter, chief of the department of justice, as desperate criminals who would shoot to kill at the least provocation the fugitives, Gerald Chapman and George Anderson, escaped from Detroit Tuesday in a maroon colored Marmon automobile, with a speed gear, and headed toward Cincinnati.

"We have information that they will stop in Lima either Wednesday or Thursday," word received here from Carter stated.

Police combed the city. Garages were visited in search of the high powered automobile and close watch was kept on hotels as the two patrolize only the best hotels in their travels. The search Wednesday night proved fruitless and after a second search Thursday night police admitted failure in getting trace of the pair.

Chapman and Anderson are suspected by department of justice officials as being ring leaders in a criminal band operating between Detroit and Canada in the transportation of illicit liquor and charged with participation in robberies and stick ups perpetrated in that city.

FUND LACK HINDRANCE, IS BELIEF

Loss of Card Men Severe Blow, State Commissioner Says

MANY OFFICIALS AT MEETING

Memorial Hall Gathering One of Series Thruout State

Calling on all citizens to put their shoulders to the wheel and do their duty in aiding law enforcement, B. F. McDonald, state prohibition commissioner, in an address to a group of law officers and citizens at Memorial hall Thursday night, declared organized government will totter if prohibition falls. The meeting was well attended.

The gathering was one of a series being held over the state, under auspices of the Anti-Saloon league, to obtain better law enforcement.

Rev. W. H. Howard, president of the Alliance Dry league, presided at the meeting. He first introduced S. A. Probst, Dayton, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league. He in turn introduced McDonald.

Com is a son of McDonald's speech, which was in a measure a review of the accomplishments of prohibition, contained a veiled admission that discharge of the card men has virtually crippled dry enforcement in Ohio.

MONEY LACKING
McDonald said he found a force of some 10 card men when he came into office. He sought $20,000 from the state legislature to put them on regular salary.

"This was denied, he said, and he was forced to appoint them without pay. The number was increased from 10 to 197. Some of the special men were paid a percentage of the fines and others were paid by corporations and such organizations as the W. C. T. U.

Some of them, McDonald admitted, did not prove to be the sort desired or fitted for positions of authority.

"The Attorney General held their acts were illegal," the speaker said, "and having no money I had to discharge them."

He denied that appointment of the card men was dictated by the Anti-Saloon league.

Program for obtaining dry enforcement on the state since discharge of the card men, will be constant check up on city and county officials who refuse to enforce strictly prohibition laws, McDonald said.

The 20 agents on the regular payroll will be used largely to obtain evidence on lenient officers.

WET MUST GO
Wet and liberal officers must go, McDonald declared, and urged citizens to cooperate to that end.

Ultimate success of prohibition was predicted by the speaker. He pointed to padlocking of 300 saloons in Cincinnati, and to the statement of the prosecuting attorney of Cuyahoga-co that there are 1,000 saloons in Cleveland subject to padlock.

McDonald drew the most vigorous outburst of applause of the evening when in no uncertain terms he advocated the deportation of bootlegging aliens.

"Let them be placed on ships and sent back home," he declared. "If after a trial they refuse to obey our laws."

McDonald told his listeners that they will never see another wet and dry election in America. The fight, he said, is on the enforcement act. He urged all citizens and organizations to enforce the dry law. Officers need encouragement, he said, and he urged citizens to lend this aid to them.

S. A. Probst, who presided, McDonald, declared that if prohibition goes down in America the constitution is gone and civilization will be set back America's future, he said, depends upon it.

COBBLER SHOT
CLEVELAND—Mystery surrounds the shooting of Joseph Rockowitz, 55, a cobbler who, with a bullet wound in his lung, was at the point of death in a hospital today. He was found unconscious by neighbors in his shop last night when they investigated the shooting. Police are holding two men in connection with the shooting. Both deny any knowledge of the crime.

EXECUTION POSTPONED
EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill.—Acting on the plea of prominent churchmen, Circuit Judge Borders, with the consent of State's Attorney Lindauer, has entered an order postponing the execution until Monday of Ernest Ruppert, negro, who had been sentenced to hang today. The churchmen had objected to the day because today is Good Friday.

April 17, 1924

$ 500.00

Draft for $500 was delivered Thursday by The Lima News to W. T. Parks, 111 W. Vine-st, guardian of Bertha I. Parks, 12, who was named as beneficiary in an insurance policy carried by Mrs. Nettie B. Parks with this newspaper.

Mrs. Parks had designated her daughter as beneficiary, Parks said, because she wanted in this way to help insure her daughter an education in case she was taken from her. He said that the money would be applied in this way.

Mrs. Parks died April 3. She had carried one of the Lima News $500 straight life insurance policies for 17 weeks, it costing $1.70 for that time.

It is the first death claim since this paper added this insurance as a service to its patrons. Above is a facsimile of the draft handed to Parks Thursday.

FLIGHT HALTED BY SNOW STORM

Army Airmen's World Trip Delayed in Alaska

CHIGNIK, Alaska — (Associated Press) — Three of the United States army giant cruisers essaying a world flight were prepared to take off today for Dutch Harbor, Unalaska Island, 400 miles distant. The scheduled start yesterday was delayed by a snow storm in the Aleutian Islands.

At Dutch Harbor, under present plans, the three planes will await the arrival of the squadron commander, Major Frederick L. Martin, who is at Kanatka, Alaska, with his disabled flag plane, the Seattle.

Weather reports early today indicated climatic conditions would be favorable for the trip by the three aviators to Dutch Harbor.

The United States coast guard cutter Haida was sailing northward today from Dutch Harbor for Kanatka, 120 miles north of Chignik, with a new engine to replace the motor in Major Martin's plane, damaged Tuesday on the Sevard-Chignik leg of the flight.

TURBULENT SEA FOUGHT

ABOARD U. S. DESTROYER JOHN D. FORD, COD BAY, Shishnu Island, Kuttles—(Associated Press) — Fighting thru turbulent seas, gales and heavy fog, the United States destroyer John D. Ford, with supplies for the American army around the world fliers, anchored at this desolate island today.

The trip from Hitoakappa Bay skirted extensive ice fields and the destroyer had all it could do to make its way against the unusual sea conditions. The gales prevented the vessel anchoring at Kaskivahua bay. Consequently it was forced to select Cod Bay, eight miles north, as a temporary harbor.

Shishnu Island is separated from Paramushiru, one of the landing points selected by the American aviators, by a stormy mile of strait. Both islands are bleak, barren and snow-covered. The heavy weather

Called "HUMAN DYNAMO"

Guides Stage Setting at Madison Square Garden

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — Behind the scenes of the gigantic task of making arrangements for the smooth operation of the Democratic National Convention, which comes here this year for the first time in 56 years, there is one all-powerful stage manager. He is George F. Mara, a Bridgeport, Conn., lawyer who the party credited with having successfully conducted the mechanics of the 1920 convention in San Francisco. He has been called "The Human Dynamo."

With guiding reins in his hands, Mara, since the convention site was decided as Madison Square Garden, has invisibly controlled a veritable labyrinth of intricate tasks. With military precision and efficiency, he has directed an undertaking fraught with difficulties and overlaid with ramifications, any one of which, if mishandled, could have been a disaster.

In January Mara, officially cloaked with the title "executive secretary of the national convention arrangements committee," quietly established a corps of workers who were aided by the Citizens Committee and the Mayor's Committee. Under his direction, numerous committees and subcommittees were created. Among the tasks accomplished have been:

TASKS ACCOMPLISHED
Organization of a non-partisan committee of 2,000 business men to help finance the convention, organization of committees from the scores of local social, commercial and political groups; inspection of hotel accommodations and allocation of space to campaign committees, delegates and alternates. Preparation of plans for altering Madison Square Garden and its vicinity for the purpose of the convention, erection of temporary buildings and of others for the installation of telegraph, telephone, wireless and radio-telephone communication, letting of concessions, engagement of bands, orchestras, stenographers and other personnel.

Appointment and distribution of tickets to the press, delegates and others; arrangements for tickets for amusement and transportation of delegates for the scores of entertainments, boat trips, concerts, theatricals, ball games, etc., which have been arranged, and the assembling and printing of the bulky convention program.

In addition to these routine tasks, Mr. Mara has had to think of the features such as the nomination and demonstrating sessions which he proposed to hold at the Yankee Stadium or the Polo Grounds and the huge military spectacle, land, water and air, which local committee men wished to undertake.

Skyscrapers 30 Years Old Reach Obsolescence Stage

MCKINLEY PARK, Alaska—(Associated Press)—Tradition has it that Mount McKinley, the loftiest peak on the American continent, is about two feet a year from its official altitude of 20,300 feet. Residents of the region are convinced that this happens. They point out that there is an average of four earthquake shocks a year, and contend that the mountain settles about six inches with each tremor.

By way of attempted confirmation, they refer to the Aleutian Islands. According to recent reports from scientific sources, no one can state the location or altitude of many of the small islands in the Aleutian archipelago. One day an island may appear well above water and the next day it may have vanished. Numerous small islands, including Bogoslov, are reported to have disappeared without a trace. Bogoslov is recalled as the island which suddenly appeared while the crew of the coast guard cutter Bear looked on, in 1906.

For these topographical freaks the blame is placed on Mount Katmai and Pavloff volcanoes, which intermittently send out dense clouds of smoke and flame.

PRESIDENT WILL TALK ON ISSUES

Scheduled to Address Editors in New York Next Week

TO MAKE SETTLE DOWN PLEA

Sees Necessity of Setting Things in Order

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — President Coolidge intends to make a plain, unfrilled statement of the issues of the presidential campaign as he sees them, when he addresses newspaper editors in New York next week.

It is desirable, in Mr. Coolidge's opinion, that the public be always informed as to what it may expect from him and his administration, providing they are turned to power. He has clear ideas of the issues and both he and his advisers agree that there is no reason why the president should not at once take a definite stand upon them.

Nothing new or startling need be expected in the way of declaration of principle in the forthcoming speech.

The principal issue as the president sees it, is whether the country is to have stability or instability, order or chaos, and whether government or anarchy is to prevail.

His whole appeal will be for setting things in order so that the country can settle down to a period of quiet and calm.

CALIFORNIA LEMONS

There never was a soft drink and never will be one more healthful, or thirst-quenching than Lemonade.

California Lemons are the best of all Spring tonics.

Lemon Juice is 100% pure. The juice of lemons contains an amazing amount of salts and acids that are natural elements also found in vitamins that everybody needs.

Order California Lemons by the dozen from your grocer or fruitman.

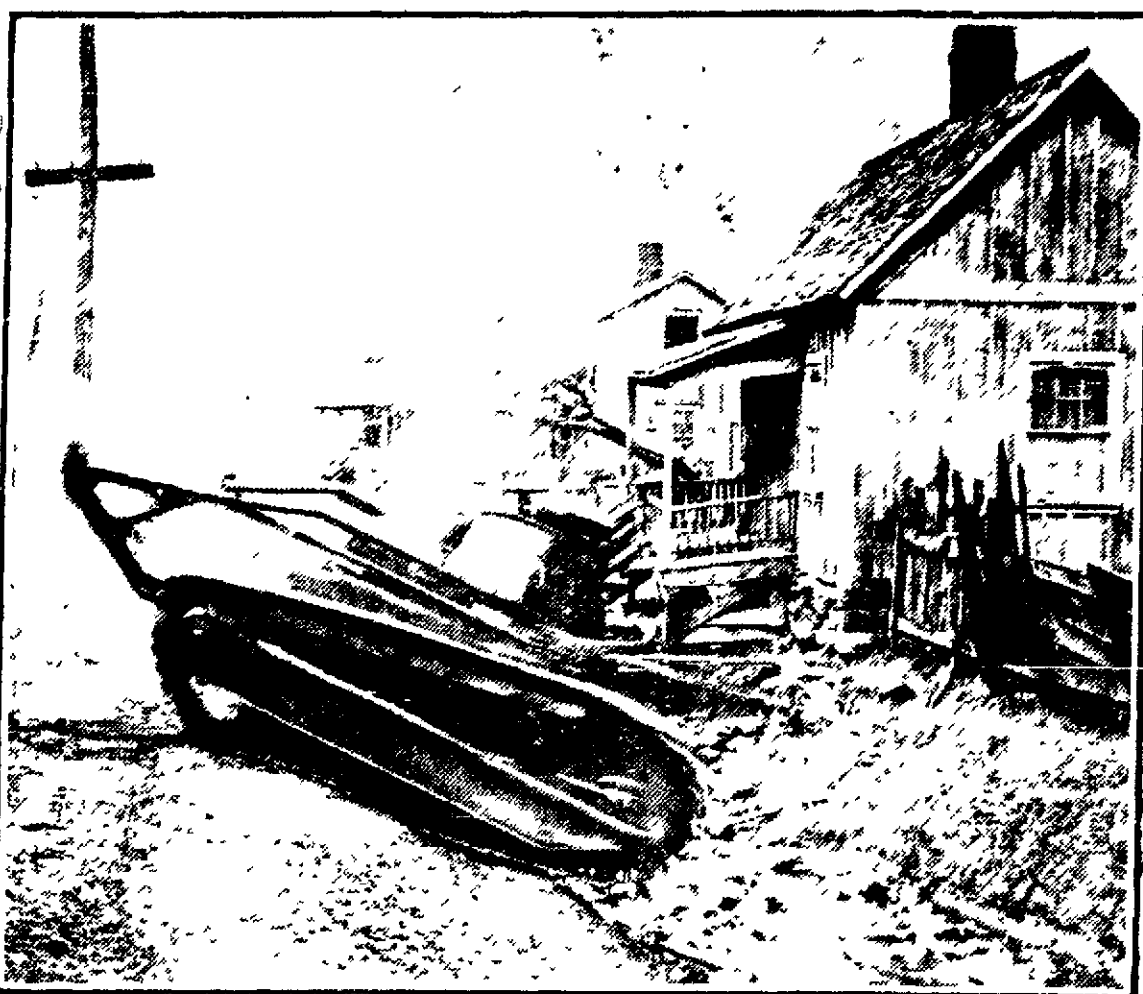

The juice from a dozen California Lemons costs no more than a quart of the best vinegar but goes twice as far when used for Salads, Dressing, Steamed New Vegetables, Fish, etc., is more palatable besides being 100% healthful.

Bake real Lemon Pies. Use pure Lemon juice instead of extracts or manufactured substitutes and notice the difference. Try this in your oven:

1 1/2 Cup Sugar
1/2 Cup Flour
1/2 Teaspoon Salt
1 Cup Boiling Water
Grated rind of 1 Lemon
3 Egg yolks
1 Tablespoon Butter
4 1/2 Tablespoons Lemon Juice
Mix sugar, flour and salt, add boiling water, stirring constantly. Allow to come to boiling point directly over the heat, then cook over boiling water in double boiler 15 minutes. Add butter, egg yolks, lemon juice and rind and mix thoroughly. Pour into a baked pie crust. Make a meringue by beating 3 egg whites until stiff and adding 1/4 cup powdered sugar and 1 teaspoon of lemon juice. Beat until smooth and glossy and spread over top of pie. Bake in a moderate oven 8 minutes, or until brown and serve cold.

MOUNT M'KINLEY IS SINKING

Earthquakes Cause Lefty Peak
Loss Each Year

CHICAGO — Associated Press — Skyscrapers and office buildings erected 10 years ago are approaching the point of obsolescence, and their modernization is one of the major problems of city development, according to Marie Schults, president of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers.

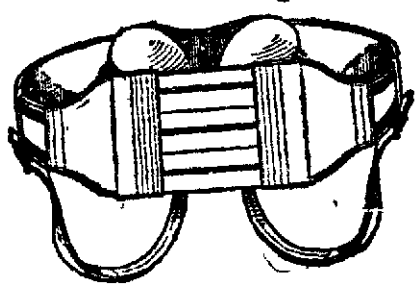

"Until 10 years ago there were few high buildings in American cities," said Mr. Schults. "In the years that have followed we have seen the skyline reach greater heights, but the great amount of building in the late '90s today brings us face to face with the problem of refitting and rehabilitating many of these old buildings for further service."

"Studies made by our organization indicate that buildings past one score and ten are approaching the point of obsolescence. Until the present time we have not been compelled to give the older office buildings much thought, but now with so great a number of the old-time office buildings reaching a place where their usefulness may be questioned, it is imperative that we ascertain the best ways and means of preventing losses that would total millions of dollars."

"The high cost of building materials of the present day makes it all the more urgent that we conserve the material in the older structures. Because of the nation-wide importance of the problem, the association convention to be held in Colorado Springs, June 22-28, will devote much time to a study of old buildings and the work of modernizing them."

Are You Ruptured?

We wish to announce the visit of the Collings Truss Experts at the Lima House, Lima, Ohio, Monday, April 21, from 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m., and 7 to 9 in the evening.

Back View of
New Invention for Rupture

We want to demonstrate to you absolutely without a penny in advance, our new invention for holding difficult or aggravated cases of rupture whether of Inguinal or Umbilical character. If you are ruptured you should be interested in our ability to fit you with a truss that will do its work properly and give you the greatest ease and comfort possible.

SCIENTIFIC AND PRACTICAL

This new Collings Truss is based on the most scientific principles for holding a rupture. It is not only representative of mechanical perfection but contains that super-power for holding a rupture without discomfort, and that makes for a complete recovery where this result is possible.

CONTAINS NO SPRINGS

There are no springs or metal parts used in this new truss other than the small necessary buckles; instead it is made of high-grade elastic web with soft, pliable cloth back made wider so to distribute the pressure over a broader surface. Prevents all cutting and chafing, and gives the necessary uplift to the pads.

IT HOLDS THE RUPTURE

It is easily, quickly and permanently adjusted so an even and uniform pressure can be constantly maintained at any desired tension. The patented sectional pads are adaptable and will fit any kind of rupture. As the cure progresses the pressure can be lessened without a change of pads.

IT STAYS PUT

When placed in position, the truss stays put and does not skid or slide. Regardless of the position of the wearer's body; stooping, jumping or standing erect, the truss remains firm and set, and adjusts itself as the occasion demands.

COMFORTABLE DAY OR NIGHT

To do its maximum amount of good, a truss should be worn continuously day and night. Upon retiring, many people remove their truss, with the result that the weakened muscular tissues relax and oftentimes allow the rupture to assume the form of the original protrusion. This new truss can be worn at all times.

FREE DEMONSTRATIONS FOR ONE DAY ONLY

Monday, April 21

Lady Fitter to Attend All-Women Callers

MOSLEMS SCORE TURK CHIEFS

Abolition of Caliphate Condemned as Religious Move

DELHI. — (Associated Press)—The abolition of the Caliphate by the Turkish republic has been condemned by all shades of thought represented among the Moslems of India. Their attacks have been leveled principally at Mustapha Kemal and Ismet Pasha, who are regarded in India as desirous of usurping the highest religious office. The Indian leaders have protested to Angora, claiming that the action has dealt a severe blow to Islam and cannot be recognized by Indian Moslems who have upheld the cause they believed the Caliphate in danger. As a result of the disintegration of Turkey after the war, many leading Indian Moslems even refused to cooperate with the English government because they held England responsible for the condition of the Turk, and they felt Lloyd George's pro-Greek policy constituted a grave menace to their religion. Among some of the Indians the action of Angora is even taken as an insult.

The proclamation of King Hussein assuming the Caliphate in Mesopotamia, Trans-Jordan and the Hedjaz is not likely to be accepted by Indian Moslems, according to many leaders in the faith. The Indians have put forward the idea of holding an Islamic conference of the leading ulemas and representatives from over the world to elect a Caliph and will probably insist upon this.

Alli Mohammed Ali, the Indian leader, has telegraphed the deposed Caliph that his countrymen are "determined to maintain the sacred Caliphate."

MEMORIAL TO DEDICATE WORKS OF NATURALIST

LONDON.—The memory of W. H. Hudson, English naturalist whose parents were American, is to be perpetuated by an annual memorial in Hudson Park, near where for a time Hudson lived, as a commonplace existence while his wife tried and failed to make a living by keeping a boarding house.

It was during this period that Hudson labored on the nature studies which are now almost a cult in England, but like many artists his work is being appreciated only after the death of its creator.

The Hudson memorial will be a small precinct of trees and shrubbery, with a decorative wall and panel in deep relief as a background. In front of the wall will be a long, shallow bird pool and a small lily pond. The little enclosure which in summer, and even during England's mild the disagreeable winter, is expected to become a refuge for the birds Hudson loved and wrote about. The sculptured panel on the decorative wall represents a maiden surrounded by birds in upward flight.

RUSSIA DOLLS UP ONCE MORE

Recognition Places Moscow Into Top Hat Market

FORMAL DRESS IS WORN

Bolsheviks Dig Garments Out of Trunks for Show

MOSCOW—(Associated Press)—British, Italian and Norwegian recognition has put Moscow back into the top hat market.

Bolshevik diplomats who, prior to the Geneva conference, were content to wear soft shirts and trousers baggy at the knee, turned to white collars for official purposes only when the first trade missions arrived from western Europe, but they could hardly then have been called a fashionable lot.

With the coming to Moscow, however, of European diplomats with all the sartorial traditions of their profession, these employees of the Soviet foreign office who have to deal with such perfectly tailored suits as were blazoned out in frock coats and all their accompaniments.

One member of Countess George Tchitcherine's staff, whose post might be compared to that of master of ceremonies, has to wear most of the clothes. He is M. Florinsky, once Russian vice consul in New York under the Czar regime. M. Florinsky is a very busy man. He holds the responsible post of head of the Grand Russian division of the foreign office and in addition has to meet the trains and welcome incoming ambassadors and other persons of importance.

Some of the old dead in the wool proletarian communists are publicly objecting to Bolshevism in top hats. One Moscow newspaper conducted a series of debates on the subject, in which M. Litvinoff, deputy commissar for foreign affairs, and numerous Soviet ambassadors abroad participated.

The subject was what sort of a uniform should a Bolshevik diplomat wear at a foreign court. The ruling impression was that they should wear whatever simple court clothes were required by the customs of the court to which they were assigned.

The views of Lenin on this subject were quoted at length. His idea on this, as on almost everything else, was that Bolshevism should do as the Romans do. It was recalled that once, when M. Joffe complained that he didn't want to go to the German Kaiser's court and wear knee breeches, Lenin said to him: "Oh! Wear petticoats if you have to. The main thing is to get to court."

Most of the Bolshevik emissaries abroad were resented to a frock coat existence, only abandoning it when they became converts to Bolshevism. They tucked their dinner jackets and other fashionable regalia into their trunks with moth balls to preserve them until it became Bolshevik fashion, too, to wear white collars again.

SEAL ELUDES FISHERMAN; RETAINS PEACE ON RHINE

COBLENZ—A perfectly neutral seal on a peaceful cruise up the Rhine in search of food stirred up a lot of trouble recently for French soldiers of the army of occupation on the one side, and a band of German fishermen who tried to catch the big fellow in their nets.
The seal was sighted first by the soldiers near the left bank of the Rhine, and they made preparations to trap it. Meanwhile, the fishermen took a hand in the chase and tried to drive the mammal to the other side of the river where there were no troops. The Germans felt that if they took the prize just off the left Rhine bank it might be confiscated by the French and the pet applied to reparations. While the soldiers threatened the fishermen and the Germans glared back at the French, the seal itself solved the question of whose property it would be. If caught, by wiggling thru the nets and going on its way.
Old residents near the Lorelei say they have no recollections of a seal ever coming up the Rhine as far as the famous rock.

HAITI PROSPERS, REPORT SHOWS

Steady Progress Recorded During American Control

BETTER HEALTH SERVICE

Natives Adapt Themselves to New Teaching

PORT-AU-PRINCE, Haiti — (Associated Press)—The rehabilitation of this island under the provisions of the treaty of Sept. 16, 1915, has gone steadily forward during the past year in all its manifold phases, and the departmental reports of the American navy officers submitted to John H. Russell, the American high commissioner, show it to have been the most successful in Haitian annals.

The improvement recorded in trade and revenue was duplicated in public works construction, in hospitalization and sanitation, in the maintenance of order by the native gendarmerie and the consequent withdrawal of American marines from all posts in the interior. An agricultural program for the development of Haiti's great but neglected natural resources was inaugurated.

Under the training of the American navy officers the natives are taking an increasingly greater part in all branches of administrative and technical work. The number of Haitian commissioned engineers and architects has been increased to a total of 19, working in conjunction with the navy's engineers as principal assistants or on special projects. Virtually the entire clerical force is now Haitian, and in all other branches their number is being increased in line with the American policy to train them to carry on when American withdrawal takes place.

The expenditures on public works was double that of last year and on road and bridge work alone it was five times that of 1922. In one section of the interior which, a few years ago, was a hotbed of bandits, the result is that the inhabitants are prosperous, money is in circulation, and the men at work rebuilding and planting.

NEW ROADS BUILT

In addition to the maintenance of 600 miles of gravelled roads, about 35 miles of a road to shorten the route between Port-au-Prince and Cape Haitien were constructed, and by connection with the Santo Domingo roads will reduce motor travel between the two republics from three days to one day. Culvert and bridge work has kept pace.

Haiti's notoriously dangerous coast line has been given also new lights to aid navigation and on Tortuga Island, famous in the days of the Spanish Main as a resort of buccaners and pirates, the masonry work of a light has been completed. A lighthouse tender has been provided, a depot completed, and an organized lighthouse service is in operation.

Communications have kept abreast of other improvements, about 850 miles of telephone and telegraph lines being now in operation. The revenues from these sources increased 33 percent last year.

The public health service reports that no serious epidemic marred the past year, and the determination that the so-called "cholera" is a form of bacillary dysentery was its outstanding accomplishment in research work. An intensive study of the disease called "yaws" also was carried out in the regions most afflicted, leading to the hope that this tropical scourge may be eradicated. The public health service has been hampered by lack of funds, its budget allowing but ten cents a person a year. Nevertheless, it maintains ten hospitals, with dispensaries, and a total bed capacity of 280. Rural clinics have been established, each under the supervision of a competent native physician, and in them more than 10,000 treatments were administered in the first nine months of their existence.

HAD SUFFERED 18 SOLID YEARS

Couldn't Eat or Sleep; Says the Plant Juice Gave Her Blessed Relief

SHE IMPROVED RIGHT AWAY

"For 18 years I had suffered constantly. I had stomach trouble and was extremely nervous. I could hardly eat or sleep. And yet, had as I was, I want to say that the first few doses of your Plant Juice leached my case and began to re-

MRS. G. E. DWIGHT

Here me and now, since I have continued taking it, my troubles are gone and I feel like a new woman."

This surprising statement was made just recently by Mrs. G. E. Dwight, well known lady of Fort Worth, Texas, living at 2703 Avenue "D," Polytechnic, Fort Worth, Texas.

"It seemed like my stomach was entirely worn out," Mrs. Dwight continued while talking with The Plant Juice Man. "After eating the lightest kind of a meal I would be violently nauseated. I kept losing weight and had become as weak as a kitten and my complexion was pale and sallow. And I was so nervous I could not sleep. I suffered all the time with my back and head."

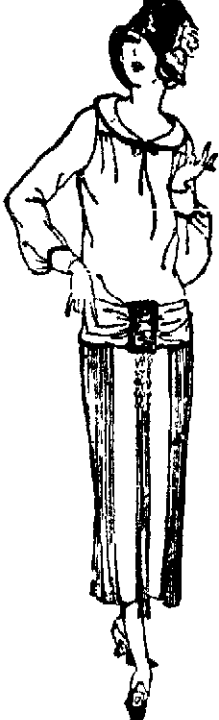

"The first few doses of your Plant Juice surely surprised me. I had suffered so long that I thought I would have to take Plant Juice quite a while before it would begin to have an effect on me but, instead of that, the medicine began to improve me at once. And now, since taking two bottles, I am simply feeling like a new woman. My stomach has improved so much that I eat the heaviest kind of food and it agrees with me perfectly. I have gained weight and strength, my complexion is good and clear now and I sleep like a child. In fact, I never felt better in my life and it is all due to Plant Juice."

Plant Juice is sold in Lima at Hunter's drug stores, 49 Public Square and Main and Wayne streets; also at the Argonne drug store, opposite Post Office.

SOVIET REIGN WEAKENS

Outlaw Whites Terrorize Red Forces Near Chila

TOKIO — (Associated Press)—Ataman Semnoff, leader of Cossacks and hero to Admiral Koltchak, in his title as supreme ruler of the Russian, says that before he dies he will fight again on Russian soil "for the freedom of the Russian people." Just when he does not know. At present he admits, the time is not ripe. But he has plans and hopes, he says, and his "preparations" go forward.

Semnoff has just left Tokio after a two weeks' visit in the Japanese capital. He came here from Nagasaki, where he has been living for the last year, since he left the United States at the urgent request of the American government and failed to find satisfactory asylum in China.

His mission in Tokio, Semnoff told the correspondent was entirely private. He was visiting old friends and seeing to some financial interests. He called on no Japanese officials, he said, and the Japanese officials say the same. There is little reason to doubt either statement, as Semnoff's star is set in Japan, where recognition of the Soviet government now is the liveliest issue in foreign politics.

Reports which Semnoff says have reached him from White agents in Russia have encouraged him to think that the Red hold on Asiatic Russia, at least, is weakening. In the Amur province, with Blagoveshensk as center, the Soviet's imposition of grain taxes in kind has led the peasants to encourage White partisan bands which have gained minor and temporary successes against the Red garrisons. At several points along the Trans-Siberian railway, according to Semnoff, discontent is taking on the proportions of considerable risings against Red rule.

"OLD MAN" RULES
Around Chila, for instance, an interesting situation has arisen. A leader of irregulars who formerly supported the Bolsheviks has turned against them. This leader, known throughout Siberia as the "Old Man," was the first to take Chila from the Whites and turn it over to the Reds. Now he is tired of Red rule. His banner has always been a red flag, but now he carries a white one with the slogan, "Down with Communism." Siberia, peopled by peasants, and the men of the land have not found communism to their liking. Revolt of this nature, according to Semnoff, also have occurred at Nerchinsk and to the west of Lake Balkal, at Novonolinsk.

So he believes the rising is coming, when it comes he thinks himself its logical leader. Wearing Koltchak's mantle, Semnoff expects to lead the White emigres now scattered throughout the Far East once he has lifted his banner again. These forces, however, have dwindled and dispersed until there is only one body of respectable size left, about 1,000 men under General Gleboff living aboard a small fleet in the Woosung River off Shanghai, where the Whites say they are maintaining discipline in all its wartime rigor and effectiveness. The White Russians in the Orient, according to Semnoff, are in constant correspondence with the White organization in France, which is headed by Markoff, once the leader of the extreme right in the Duma under the Czar. Gleboff has been exchanged recently with the Grand Duke Nicholas, now living in Paris.

NURSE CHAPPELLE SAYS TANLAC BRINGS MOST GRATIFYING RESULTS

Nurse With 15 Years' Experience Urges Use of Tanlac—Tells of Her Mother's Experience With World's Famous Tonic.

"I have direct and personal knowledge of so many cases where TANLAC has restored health and strength and helped weak, run-down people to get on their feet that I know it to be an unusual medicine," is the emphatic manner in which Mrs. M. E. Chappelle, Blue Mount and Thomas Ave., Wauwatosa, Wis., a practical nurse of fifteen years' experience, pays tribute to the famous treatment.

"Time and again I have urged TANLAC's use and it always brings the most gratifying results. My own mother, now eighty years old, took TANLAC five years ago and it has been her standby ever since. Nothing helps her as TANLAC does and she is as strong an advocate of the medicine as I am. Only recently, mother became generally run-down. Her stomach was disordered, her appetite utterly failed her, and she came near having a nervous breakdown. TANLAC gave her a vigorous appetite, corrected all complaints and left her not only well and happy but so strong and active that she looks after the home and

MAILMAN PAY IS BIG PROBLEM

Postmaster General Sees Trouble in Any Move

WASHINGTON — (Special) — On an average, every man, woman and child in the country gets 112 letters a year.

That's what's worrying Postmaster General Harry New. If anything goes wrong in the Postoffice Department EVERYBODY suffers and there's a terrible roar. If postal rates have to be increased, still, same thing. If postal employees are dissatisfied, there's no class of public servants so close to the public and kicks begin to come in right away.

Well, the postal employees are dissatisfied with their pay. New admitted it was ridiculously low, considering the present cost of living, but he said an increase was impossible without increasing rates; so he couldn't see his way clear to do anything.

Then the kicks began coming. They were so strenuous that now the government admits there's GOT to be a pay increase.

New delved into the matter and decided economies could be effected which would make a $43,000,000 increase possible without enough of an advance in rates to cause trouble. But in the meantime a drive had been developed for a $150,000,000 pay increase. That will involve so much higher rates, New believes, that there WILL be trouble. Yet if he stands pat on a maximum of $43,000,000 he's afraid the employees will resent it so much that the service's efficiency will suffer, and THAT will be resented by the public. ALL KINDS OF HOME FORCED SPRING FLOWERS AND POTTED ROSE PALMS. WE GROW ALL OUR OWN PLANTS. EGERT N. ZETLITZ.

LIMA BEANE'S OPEN LETTERS

To City Manager Bingham
Dear General: You will be back from your vacation in a few days, I'm given to understand at City Hall. I sincerely hope the sojourn in the east has done you much good and that you will come back fresh for a big summer of public work.

There is much to be done and many problems to be solved. You can do much to push my city ahead another notch toward the 100,000 mark by watching every turn and getting the most out of the money my folks pay in as taxes.

LIMA BEANE

To the Weather Man

Old Top, Easter is at hand and by precedent you are allowed to act up a little at this time of year, but I implore you to be reasonable. Think of the tons and tons of coal you have forced me to shovel and the other tons of ashes I had to move during the last six months. Then have a heart!

LIMA BEANE

To County Commissioners and County Engineer

Gentlemen: Allen-co still has hundreds of miles of gravel and stone roads. They are used constantly and are as important as the paved ones. They were given a severe test during the last winter and the present spring. They have been cut up and are full of chuck holes. A little scraping and grading will place them in good shape for the summer wear they will have. Now is the time to start. We want no storing of road machinery this summer when it should be out doing its full share to keep our arteries of transportation in the best possible condition. I know you will not countenance this. There ought to be a lot of road work this summer as an election is coming on. That usually causes quite a stir, if nothing else does.

LIMA BEANE

To James M. Cox

Dear Jim: I welcome you back to the best state in the Union. I don't blame you for going to the sunny climes for the bad winter weather, but I want you always to claim the old Buckeye state as your regular place of abode.

Things are looking up so far as your candidacy for the nomination for president on the Democratic ticket are concerned, I believe. If I am any judge of the signs of the times, you will have a solid delegation down at New York fighting for an illustrious son for that great honor. I compliment you upon the high esteem in which your neighbors hold you and express my sincere hope that you will have an opportunity to bear your party's banner again and this time to victory.

LIMA BEANE

To Lima Guardsmen

Boys: You made a fine showing in the test mobilization this week. It shows what you can do. I know that Major Frank Hume's boast that 90 per cent of the strength here can be at roll call if an emergency existed would be fulfilled. I hope, however, that it will be a long time before an emergency exists.

LIMA BEANE

To H. C. Sterling

Dear Harry: I do not know very much about electrical power and its use or manufacture except as I turn on my house lights when it gets dark, but at the same time I am interested in learning that the power peak, as it is called, will soon be seen during the daytime when the factories are operating rather than at night when the house lights are turned on. Power in the daytime is producing and is making more money for all of us. That's what we want.

LIMA BEANE

To Lima Medical, City Officials and Hospital Trustees

Gentlemen: I sincerely hope some good will come from the meeting held Tuesday night at the hospital. I and all my people are anxious to have the new hospital built and in operation as soon as possible. Let us agree on a site and then all work together to make it a success. Can I not depend on your fullest cooperation?

LIMA BEANE

To T. B. Hospital Workers

Dear Friends: It is with pleasure I again have the opportunity to add in the successful treatment of a dread disease. Your work at the district hospital has been excellent and I know that every person in my city will be glad to wear one of the tags you will dispense Saturday. Workers all over the district will aid and I'm sure the campaign will be a success.

LIMA BEANE

To Property Owners

Citizens: You now have your personal property tax blanks. I hope you will see that they are filled out and returned to the assessors before May 1, the date they must be in if you are to get the $100 exemption. Do not forget to swear as to the truthfulness of the return before you hand it in. Our county auditor tells me the return is no good unless a notary has affixed his "hand and seal."

LIMA BEANE

To Young Motorists

Friends: Each day as I drive about public streets of my city and along the highways of my county, especially on Sundays, do I realize the need of some sort of special punishment for a great many of you. Probably a good, old-fashioned spanking might fill the bill.

I refer in this connection to the "spooning" in machines while you are driving. It is not uncommon to see a young man attempting to handle a car with one hand while the other is engaged in caressing his fair partner. And a number of the girls are as guilty of contributing to the danger of wrecking other machines as are the boys.

If your dads and mothers would take you back in the old wood shed and apply a paddle as in the days of yore, it might help. Since this seems to be out of date, our police officers should take a hand. This practice I complain of is far more dangerous to the general public than is the double parking to which the department is giving so much attention just now.

LIMA BEANE

To Haddad-Kairral McHugh-Cole Co.

Contractors: I appreciate your efforts to hurry along the sewer work of my city.

ALUM IN THE MEDICINE CUPBOARD

A doctor book which I can unreservedly recommend to discriminating people informs the reader who has paid his two dollars for a copy that alum is the simplest and cleanest astringent for local use. By that, understand, I meant no aspersion on other astringents which may be suggested in other doctor books. As an astringent alum is none too clean, at that, tho I know of none cleaner which a layman can safely use.

The dangerous dirt is the dirt which is invisible to the naked eye—the kind we see thru the microscope.

A little powdered alum may be shaken into the groove where an "ingrowing nail" is seemingly cutting the flesh. It shrivels the raw, red fleshy mass—"proud flesh," granulation tissue—which develops in the groove and prevents healing. When applying alum to stop oozing or bleeding from a small cut or abrasion sprinkle some of the powder on a clean handkerchief or on a clean towel and dab it over the cut gently, or sprinkle the powder on the cut itself.

A solution of a teaspoonful of alum in a quart of hot water makes a mildly astringent gargle, wash or douche.

Stronger solutions, one or two tablespoonfuls of alum in a pint of water, may be mopped on the skin of the arm pits or the feet or hands to relieve excessive sweating, two or three times a week, allowing the solution to dry on the skin. The weaker solution (teaspoonful of alum to the quart of water) applied hot will often relieve intense itching (pruritus). The weaker solution is also a relief in some cases of chilblains and may be sprayed in the nose to stop nosebleed, or a tampon of absorbent cotton moistened with it may be inserted in the nose.

Singers and speakers find alum useful to prevent hoarseness or huskiness of the voice. Dissolve two teaspoonfuls of alum in seven ounces of barley water and add two teaspoonfuls of honey of roses. Gargle once or twice with some of this shortly before singing or speaking. Honey of roses may be had at any rose factory or beehive. I have a still better gargle for singers and speakers. I'll be glad to mail it to any one who will provide a stamped, self-addressed envelop.

Read Mt. 27:29-50. Text: 29 him. And . . . they . . . crucified him.
"In the midst of his physical pain and mental distress Jesus seemed to be chiefly thoughtful of others: the soldiers that nailed him to the cross; the mother that he had so long supported; the awakening heart of the brigand on the neighboring cross; his mission to men. This could only be because the habit of his life was to take account of others."

MEDITATION: Jesus had faced the cross for many days and no doubt had gone to God frequently to learn the Father's will for him. There were other times in his life when he stepped aside when men sought to kill him. He could have saved himself here, but he realized that only by submitting himself could he be true to his life's ideals and the will of God.

PERSONAL QUESTIONS: Does the cross of Christ mean more and more to me?

PRAYER: Most merciful Father, we pray that we may not be slackers in the world's travail but faithful companions of our Lord. Give us grace neither to deny nor forsake thee. If we weaken, may we not fail. Even should we fail, lift us up and turn us, O God, towards the duty, that in laboring here we may find life. Amen.

HIS BROTHER'S WIFE

by RUDY AYRES
© NFA SERVICE

BEGIN HERE TODAY.

Dolly, a governess, is in love with her poor sister, Robert Durham. When Nigel Bretherton, who has money, falls in love with her, Dolly gives up Robert and marries Nigel. The marriage proves an unhappy one. When war is declared, Nigel is glad to enlist. He leaves Dolly in the care of his friend Mary Furbush. Mary takes her with Nigel and tries to make his wife happy. Dolly regrets her hasty marriage with Nigel and tells Mary she is sorry because she did not marry Robert. When Nigel leaves for the front, Mary and Dolly decide to live together in Dolly's flat. The girls are opposites in every way but Mary tries to love Dolly for Nigel's sake.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

Don't even you understand?" she asked, in a muffled voice. "Couldn't you see that he was glad to go—that he wanted to go? We've just been making the best of a bad job ever since we were married—it was a mistake—just a silly mistake. Oh, I'm not blaming him—he's always been kind, and I know he's good and brave, but, oh, I know that he's hated it all as much as I have!" Her voice sank to a whisper.

A little fidgety, Dolly had left the rug, and was rolling over and over with a ball of khaki wool between its tiny paws, hopelessly entangling it; but Mary did not see, and would not have cared had she seen.

Presently Dolly lifted her head.

The elder girl moved a little; she seemed to drag her thoughts back from some far distance to the girl at her side.

"I think," she said slowly—"I think that—perhaps I always—knew."

In this moment of illumination it seemed as if she really had always known; some love is gifted with strange intuition, and she had always loved Nigel.

Dolly went on impulsively: "I don't blame him—he ought not to have married me. I wasn't good enough for him, but—but I was so tired of being poor—of earning my own living." She thought of two unmanageable children, and shivered.

And then suddenly she thought of Robert Durham.

She had never seen him since she wrote that curt note of dismissal—never heard anything of him—and yet, somehow, he had never been out of her thoughts.

Here was one reason why she and Nigel had never been happy—because she had always loved another man; she wondered what Mary would say if she knew. Mary, who had never had a love affair in all her life.

Mary stooped and disengaged the ball of wool from the kitten's tiny paws; the knitting needles began to click again busily.

Dolly looked out of the window with dreamy eyes. Mary, glancing at her, wondered what were her thoughts; beyond a tiny pucker between her brows, she looked serene and undisturbed.

Mary stifled the sigh in her throat, and went on patiently knitting the khaki-colored sock.

CHAPTER IV. David's Letter.

September was dying, and the artist hand of October had begun to paint the world with its wonderful tints of red and orange.

Already the trees were getting bare; one could see the road quite plainly now from the windows of Dolly Bretherton's flat thru the shivering line of lime-trees that bordered the path outside.

Dolly stood at the window, and looked out at the gray, misty line of sky above the houses; she always seemed to be looking out of the window now. She had a curious feeling that she was waiting for something—something important—something that would come along and change the whole of her life—something, she did not know what.

Nearly seven weeks since Nigel went away.

Twice she had had an official postcard from him, with the meager news that he was well; once a letter hastily scrawled on scraps of paper.

He was full of enthusiasm, full of courage, but it was the sort of letter he might have written to an ordinary acquaintance.

Dolly gave it to Mary to read.

"There are no secrets," she said dryly.

The letter began, "Dearest Dolly," and ended, "Yours affectionately."

That was a fortnight ago now, and since then there had been no news.

She swung round from the window suddenly to where Mary sat at the table writing.

"David Bretherton doesn't seem to be going to acknowledge me, does he?" she asked.

Mary looked up.

"David!" echoed.

Dolly made a little impatient gesture.

"Nigel's brother, I mean. Nigel wrote to him before he went to France, and told him all about our marriage. He thought—in case he never came back—that David ought to know."

Mary made no comment.

"I suppose if anything happens I shall be quite dependent on his—charity," Dolly said again, bitterly.

"Perhaps he has never had Nigel's letter."

"I don't suppose he'd answer it if he had; he doesn't believe in marriage. Nigel was always saying what a peculiar sort of man he was. Did you ever know him, Mary?"

"No," Dolly wandered back again to the window.

"He's as rich as Croesus," she said. "They have a lovely house in the country—the Red Grange."

"I know."

"You know! Have you ever been there?"

Mary flushed a little.

"Nigel took me down one day—oh, a long time ago, before he ever knew of you!" she added quickly, seeing a spark of anger in her friend's eyes.

"He would never take me—he made excuses when I asked him. 'Is it very beautiful?' she asked.

"I have never seen such a lovely place."

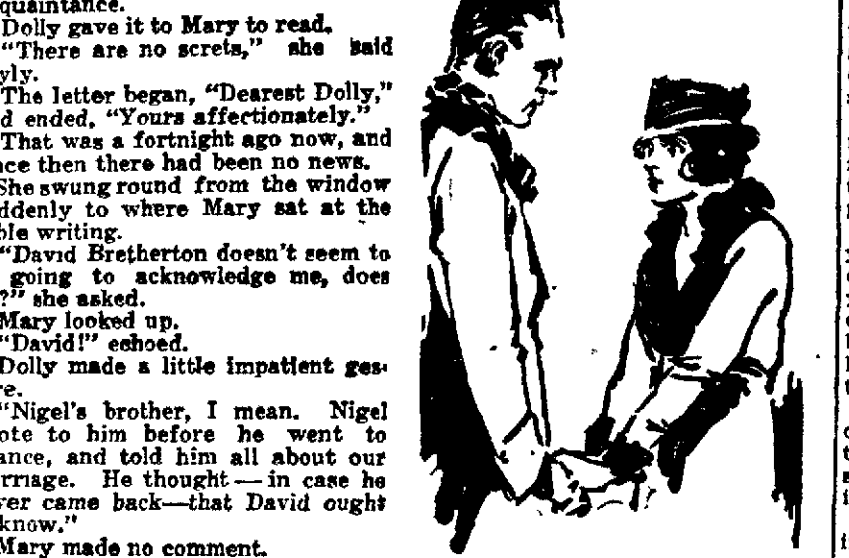

The gate clicked suddenly. Dolly turned her head again.

"It's the postman," she said. There was something frightened in her voice. "You go, Mary."

Mary went out into the hall; she came back after a moment with one letter.

"It's for Nigel," she said.

Dolly took it, and eagerly scanned the envelope. The stamp was a foreign one. "It's from David," she said. "At last!"

Her hands shook with excitement as she opened the flap. Mary turned away; she was beginning to wonder if she had ever really cared anything for Nigel's wife—if it had not just been for his sake that she had been a friend to her.

After a moment Dolly gave a little angry exclamation; she laughed shortly.

"I knew what he would say. I always told Nigel." She pushed the letter across the table. "Read it. Very well, then," as Mary shook her head, "I'll read it to you."

"Dear Nigel—Many thanks for your letter, in which you tell me you are going to the front and that you have been married eighteen months. Neither piece of news came as a surprise to me.

"I am coming home almost immediately to see if the War Office can be persuaded to make some use of an old crock like myself, and shall hope to see you before you leave England, when we can discuss the future.

"With regard to your marriage, I only hope you have made a wise choice, and am happy, tho the tone of your letter makes me dubious."

Dolly screwed the letter into the palm of her hand and threw it across the room. Her eyes were flashing angrily.

"Did you ever hear such a thing? How dare he! Nigel must have said something. He would not show me the letter he wrote. I ought to have made him." She burst into a storm of angry tears.

"Dolly—Dolly!" Dolly wrenched herself free when Mary would have put an arm around her. She ran from the room.

Face downwards on the bed she sobbed herself into serenity again; she rose presently and bathed her face and brushed her hair.

She put on her hat and went out; she passed the room where Mary was sitting, but did not go in, or call goodby to her.

The September afternoon was drawing to a close; there was no breath of wind, and the red and yellow leaves hung listlessly from the trees that bordered the path.

Dolly walked on with downcast eyes; she did not know why she had come out—she had nowhere particular to go; but the house seemed to stifle her; the presence of Mary was a reproach.

She thought of Robert Durham—his kind, grave face, his worshipful smile; and a man coming along the street bumped against her. He drew back with a muttered apology, then stopped.

"Dolly!" Dolly caught her breath with almost a cry. She looked up at his face, and thought herself dreaming; then she held out both shaking hands, only to withdraw them again agitatedly.

"Robert!"

She had been thinking of him, and now he was here. For two years she had longed for a sight of him, tho she had not dared to confess it even to her own heart; and now he was at her side. The blood rushed up into her face; her eyes spoke the welcome her lips dared not utter.

It was he who recovered himself first; he was a little pale, but quite self-possessed.

"I was thinking about you a moment ago," he said.

"I was thinking of you," she answered impulsively. Her eyes were wandering over him—his face, his figure.

He was a little altered—older, perhaps, and—yes, he was better dressed than she remembered him. There was a smarter cut to his coat; he wore expensive-looking boots. He seemed to follow her thoughts, for he said, smiling rather constrainedly:

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM BEATRICE GRIMSHAW TO SALLY ABBERTON

DEAR, DEAR, SALLY:

I wish you had let me know in time so that I could have come to you in your trouble. We haven't seen very much of each other in the last few years, dear, but I believe you have written to me more freely and more confidentially than to any one of your other friends. Indeed, I have sometimes marvelled at the frankness of your letters.

I would like to have been with you at this time—that is, if you had thought I could have been of any comfort to you.

It's a queer world, my dear. I'm not going to apologize for that trite sentence, because I believe I say it over and over to myself more than any other that I know.

I am sure that neither your nor my life is unique, and yet, nothing that either of us expected has come to pass, and much that we didn't expect has come to us.

I never thought, Sally dear, that your marriage would have turned out just as it has. It seems to me you have had more than your share of trouble. You've had to work so hard, and Sam's blindness, and now his death. I'm wondering what you think of it all.

This letter is not a usual letter of condolence, is it? But truly, dear, I think you are happier standing beside the open grave than I am looking into a deserted heart.

I'm wondering if you reached Sam in time to have come to any understanding before he passed beyond mortality's frontier. Had it been me that had been called under the same circumstances as you, I would have hoped that there never would have been any explanations.

You're better off, dear, than I. When we can write "Finitis" at the bottom of any great adventure, we are much happier than when we are always hoping that possibly that adventure will open up to something more intriguing than has gone before.

As long as Dick Summers shall live, I shall be hoping.

I expect when you read this, Sally, you will think I am very weak, especially as I cannot blame Dick for what he has done. Paula Perier is more beautiful than I, she is cleverer than I, she has everything that I have not; and because of this I am desolate.

I could not tell this to Dick. He wouldn't understand it. But I am telling it to you, dear, because I feel that you and Sam had come to the parting of the ways long before he had passed irrevocably out of your life.

Just why I am writing this way to you I do not know. You never have been conventional in any way, and I have never been before, unconventional.

Will you go back into the office of Jack Prescott? I would love you to come and see me for a little while, for I have a feeling that contrary to the usual idea that a woman's life is ended when she returns from the grave of her husband, yours has just begun.

Sally, dear, I'm sorry if you're sorry. You know that. For I am always and ever your real friend,

TURN PROFANITY INTO ART

Cursing Exalted to Standard of Music by the Lapps

HAVE NO SWEAR WORDS

Wrath Songs Made Use of in Swedish North

STOCKHOLM — (Associated Press) — The Lapps are perhaps the only people in the world who have no swear words in their language, but they have wrath-songs instead, and thus have, in a sense, exalted profanity into an art. This and other striking information about the music of the Lapps has just come to light thru the explorations and researches of Karl Tiren, who has brought back to Stockholm 500 songs and 700 phonograph records of the weird songs of these mysterious nomads of the Swedish north. The fact that Lapp lays are forms of personal expression and not means of giving entertainment for listeners, has made it almost impossible for observers to learn much about them. It took years of association before Tiren could win sufficient confidence of any Lapp to be let into so secret and personal a thing as his music-making, or "joiking," as it is called. Once that confidence was established, however, he was richly rewarded. The typical Lapp song contains a melodious metrical and rhythmical text without rhyme. The music is descriptive of the theme and there are "leitmotives" for each person, animal or thing. The bear, the reindeer, the squirrel, the river, the hill, even the mosquito, each has his peculiar motive. Tiren has interested musicians here by showing that many pieces of the Lapp music bear strong resemblance to Wagner. Thus a song about a bear that attacks the reindeer is a close parallel to one of the motives in "Rheingold." So vivid and poignant is this song that Lapp women have been known to faint during its rendition. Tiren's collection includes medicinal men's incantations, laments, paeans, wrath-songs, and a great range of descriptive tunes. One of the most descriptive represents a Swedish crown prince, afterwards Charles XV, who visited Lapland some 70 years ago. It bears an illuminating similarity to another tune supposed to describe a mountain in Lapland.

TAILOR MAKES VALUABLE FIND

"After spending $900 for medicine and doctors in four years without getting any benefit for stomach trouble and bloating I was induced by my druggist to try May's Wonderful Remedy and must say that a $1.25 bottle has done me $500 worth of good." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Hunter's drug stores and druggists everywhere. adv.

WHY DOES YOUR DOCTOR ADVISE A SPRING TONIC AT THIS TIME OF YEAR?

This is the season when your system is trying to adjust itself to warmer weather. Your liver becomes sluggish and your bowels clogged up with poisonous, sickening wastes. As a result, many suffer from such symptoms as sour stomach, coated tongue, bad taste, biliousness, irregular movements of the bowels, sick-headaches, pains in the back and sides. Make this test: Cleanse and tone your liver and bowels with Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup. Put your stomach in condition—soothe your tired and over-taxed nerves, brace up your system and send purer and healthier blood coursing through your veins. Notice quick difference in way you look, eat, sleep and feel! You, too, will be satisfied, as others have, or no cost. Dr. Thacher's is sold and recommended by Butler's Drug Store and Green's Public Drug Store in Lima and by leading druggists in every city and town. adv.

Suffered Awfully With Itching Scalp Cuticura Heals

"I suffered awfully with itching scalp, also pimples and sore eruptions on my face. The pimples were hard and sore and a dry scale formed over them. They were in large blotches and looked awfully bad. My hair fell out and I lost many hours' good sleep on account of the itching and burning. I was troubled with pimples for several years. Seeing an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment I sent for a free sample. I purchased more and after using two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and three cakes of Cuticura Soap I was healed." (Signed) Alfred Larson, 996-25th Ave., Milwaukee, Wis.

TAX FUND SWELLS TREASURY

Seven Million Persons Paid Taxes on Wages Last Year

CHECKING SYSTEM USED

Penalty Imposed for Fraudulent Filing of Blanks

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — What becomes of the vast sums of money collected annually from the American people in the form of income taxes? How and by whom is it all handled? What happens to the taxpayer's check from the time he leaves his hands till it arrives in the Treasury of the United States? There was a total of $1,691,089, 234 56 collected in income taxes on a total of 7,714,828 returns filed for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1923.

Sixty-five collectors, representing that number of collection districts in the United States, took care of 21 of that money and a large part of the returns.

Your check when it arrives in the hands of the collector of your district has the following adventures.

When the returns, accompanied by the remittances, are first received, they are promptly stamped with the date of receipt and sorted according to their form groups.

There are three major groups of forms: Form 1120 is the form for filing of income returns from corporations; Form 1040 for individuals whose income exceeds $5,000 or is derived from business, and Form 1040A for individuals whose income is less than $5,000 or is derived largely from salaries or wages.

The collectors send all the returns filed on Form 1120 and all of those filed on Form 1040, whose income is $15,000 or over, to the Bureau of Internal Revenue for auditing and retain all other returns in their own offices for auditing there.

After the returns are segregated into the proper classes, serial numbers are assigned and affixed both to the returns and the remittances. The remittances are then detached and the returns sent to a billing machine operator, who prepares assessment lists, tax bills, index cards and mailing addresses at the same operation.

When this has been completed the payments are posted to the lists by bookkeeping machines and the remittances are deposited in a designated Federal Reserve Bank or National Bank.

The bank issues a certificate of deposit to the collector and prepares a daily transcript of the United States Treasury's general account, giving the Treasury credit for the amount deposited.

Your check has then become a part of the United States Treasury and is used when necessary to help make up one of the numerous appropriations which are voted by Congress or ordered by appropriations committees with the proper authority.

In the event that your return, when audited, proves to have been too much, you are either credited with the excess amount or are given a refund. If you have made a mistake in your returns and the auditing shows that you have filed a return for less than you should have, you are assessed the amount and charged 6 per cent interest, unless it proved that your return was fraudulent, in which case you are subjected to a fine and a penalty.

GLAND GRAFTING IS ONLY TEMPORARY, SAVANT SAYS

BERKELEY, Cal. — Rejuvenation by means of gland operations is only temporary, in the opinion of Professor T. C. Burnett of the University of California department of physiology.

"The apparent improvement following the grafting of glands will remain temporary," the professor explained, "until our knowledge of the physiological aspects of glands and gland secretions is vastly increased. From what is known of body glands, it is logical to assume that if we could resupply the secretions which are responsible for our vitality and youth, we might thrust old age to the back stage.

"Newspapers are too enthusiastic on the subject. They jump ahead of the experimenters and medical men to get a spectacular story. This policy has its effect on the public. Everyone leaps to startling and unfounded conclusions, and the result is a lack of critical judgment which is essential in the consideration of such a complex subject."

ESKIMO BOYS EDUCATED BY GOVERNMENT TEACHERS

JUNEAU, Alaska — The steamer Roger, of the United States bureau of education, was here recently preparing to go south after her first season of service as a floating industrial school. Throughout the winter the Roger carried 19 students, Eskimo lads who had distinguished themselves in the seventh and eighth grades of the government schools near their homes. Eight of students came from the country between Point Barrow and Wainwright Inlet, the farthest north of all United States land, and the rest from the Panhandle, or southeastern Alaska. The young Eskimos were taught navigation, gas engineering and radio telegraphy. They all proved good students, reported C. W. Hawkesworth, superintendent for the bureau.

BABY DEATH RATE HIGH IN U. S.

50 Other Nations Lead With Lower Percentage, Says Hoover

HEALTH CAMPAIGN IS ON

May Day is Set Aside for Special Effort

WASHINGTON — Associated Press — May Day is to be made the occasion for a coordinated effort by the various organizations interested in the welfare of American children. President Coolidge has left his endorsement and assistance to the project in a letter to Secretary Hoover, who as president of the American Child Health Association, presented the matter to him in a letter that makes some startling statements concerning child life in this country.

"With all the enlightenment and all the prosperity of our great people," says Hoover, "we find that in five other nations there is a lower death rate among infants, we find in 16 other nations a lower rate of fatality amongst mothers at childbirth. The great national draft indicated that something like 80 percent of the men examined were deficient in some particular or another."

SAFEGUARDS URGED

While the greater part of America's 3,000,000 children are objects of the utmost solicitude on the part of parents, Hoover points out that no amount of individual solicitude can protect the dangers to which children are in many instances subjected by failure of community safeguards. "We find," he says, "in many of our communities, impure sources of water and impure supplies of milk in others we find inadequate provision for health inspection and playgrounds. We find archaic systems and incompetent administration of public health in many cities and towns, and we still have large numbers of children at work in factories when they should be in school."

It is to awaken community and national thought and secure concentrated effort on child welfare that May Day, traditionally and peculiar-

Johnson, a commercial pilot, likes to go high and fast. He'll accompany his master in the international races in Dayton next October. Yep, he wears goggles.

In children's day, is proposed for the purpose, and President Coolidge has given it his unqualified support. "The tremendous growth of urban population," the President says in his letter to Hoover, "constantly presents new problems of child life and health. These problems should be met by action within each community itself." (Governors of states, commissioners of health and education, mayors of cities, various organizations, the press, the motion picture industry, radio broadcasting and all other suitable agencies have been asked to join in stimulating the observance of May Day as a "Day of Child Welfare.")

Piles

Can't Be Cured from the Outside
External treatments seldom cure Piles.

Nor do surgical operations. The cause is inside—bad circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.

The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead. To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—send a fresh current through stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonhardt, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-ROID, and tried it in 1000 cases before he was satisfied. Now HEM-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless tablet, easy to take, and can always be found at Hunter's Drug Store, who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer.

CALENDAR CHANGE IS PROPOSED

Thirteen Month Year Favored by Leading Scientists

WORLD CONGRESS TO ACT

Proposed Plan Provides Extra
Day for Leap Year

WOOSTER — (Associated Press) —The world's calendar may be changed all around in 1928. The year then may consist of 13 months, each of 28 days, with an extra day in regular years and two extra days in leap years.

Such is the objective of scientists, according to Dr. B. F. Yanney, professor of mathematics and astronomy at the College of Wooster, and the revision probably will be acted upon at a world congress of scientists likely to be held in Geneva, Switzerland, in October. A special committee, of which Prof. M. B. Cotsworth, Vancouver, B. C., director of the International Fixed Calendar League, is secretary, soon will set a definite date for the congress.

The committee as selected at the Cincinnati meeting of the American Association for Advancement of Science.

International agitation to change the existing form of the calendar now has reached such a stage that organization to change to a simpler type is under way, Dr. Yanney said. He expressed himself as certain, if the proposed Scientists' Congress adopts the thirteen month style, that sentiment will be strong to bring about its adoption in 1928 by all countries.

CALENDAR DEFECTS

There are many defects in the present calendar, Dr. Yanney asserted. It is of Roman origin with a number of changes by Augustus Caesar and Pope Gregory XIII.

"There are 14 varieties of yearly calendar," Dr. Yanney continued. "They depend upon the kind of year, common or leap, and on the day of the week that the year begins. In any century these 14 varieties occur in cycles of 28 years, but by reason of the fact that of centennial years only those divisible by 400 are leap years, it requires a complete period of 400 years for a complete cycle to occur.

"Due to the number of days in the months, there are eleven variations in a year. Apart from the year in which a monthly calendar may appear, there are altogether 33 variations of monthly calendars. The shortest period of time in which these 33 variations may occur is 34 years, and one month, the latter being for 3,000 years.

February if a leap year. In other ways the present calendar is inadequate to meet business and scientific demands.

Should the 13-month style of calendar be chosen, the congress would settle details and draft resolutions in legislative form for adoption by the governments. Such a calendar, Dr. Yanney declared, should be good for 3,000 years.

110 Minutes Gas Took the Place of 680

Herewith is the amazing summary of the cooking tests:

10 lb. Ham	45	240
Layer Cake	10	25
3 Vegetables	15	225
5 lb. Beef Roast	30	150
Totals	110	680

"A revelation," "amazing," "wonderful," "almost unbelievable," and "imagine it" were typical remarks of women who saw these remarkable tests on the range which cooks with the gas turned off. Yet such tremendous savings of gas, time and effort are now the regular daily experience of everyone who purchased a Chambers Range during the week. Come in and see the Chambers Range in all-white or black-and-white which exactly fits that space in your own kitchen.

4 MILLIONS WILL VOTE IN FRANCE

Interest Worked to High Pitch for Election May 10

MANY LEAN TO RADICALISM

National Bloc Playing Important Part in Campaign

PARIS — (United Press) — About four million Frenchmen will go to the polls May 10—the first day of Joan of Arc—to register, by their votes, what they think of the manner in which the "Horizon Blue" chamber of deputies, elected in 1919, just after France had emerged from a victorious war, has looked after the national interests.

Many changes have been noted in the French outlook on the world situation since those feverish days of the Peace Conference. France has had grievous disappointments from her war allies. Germany has defaulted. France is supporting alone, the burden of her devastated provinces Italy has gone her own way regarding Germany and Russia. England, in whose promises France placed such trust, has reverted to her pre-war way of thinking. The United States refused to ratify the Treaty of Versailles and, until very recently, declined to take anything more than an academic interest in what Europe was doing. Then there is the Dawes Commission and its recommendations. These are some of the things the deputies, who are seeking re-election, will have to explain to their constituents. And that is only a fraction. Happenings in the world outside France and France's reaction to them have had a profound effect on the life of the people here. The cost of living has soared about four hundred per cent. While there is practically no unemployment, the scale of wages has not gone up to meet the cost of living. The international value of the franc has decreased to about one-fourth of its value at the end of the war. Foreign trade has suffered thereby.

FRANCE GETTING RADICAL

Since the formation of the "National Bloc", or union of deputies, following the lead of President Millerand, whose war-cry in 1919 was "conservation and opposition" to extremists both of the right and left, royalists and communists, there have been many indications that the mass of the electorate has been tending toward the radical viewpoint.

Premier Poincare's prestige and parliamentary skill have been able to hold his chamber majority in leash, but the senate has not been so obedient. Members of the upper house do not come up for re-election in considering the chances of success of the "National Bloc" at the May 10 electoral test. It must be remembered that it includes a large number of deputies who belong to "groups" more inclined to radicalism than to conservatism. Poincare and Millerand claim that it is the bulwark of republicanism. Men like Briand and Herriot ridicule this assertion. They have voted for Poincare in the chamber, but they have proclaimed in their own constituencies that they base their political faith on the French revolution—in other words, they are against reaction of all kinds. When Poincare talks of force against Germany and refuses to have anything to do with the Soviets, the radical leaders stand for an amiable settlement of the reparations problems and the acceptance of the actual regime in Russia.

The last chamber included 626 deputies. The "Republican Democratic Entente Group," consisting of 181 deputies, was the parliamentary basis off the "National Bloc." It is extremely likely that this group will be as strong in the new parliament. But what of the other groups, the so-called republican left, the radical-socialist group and the democratic republican left? They numbered in the outgoing chamber nearly 240 members. Without their co-operation Poincare could not have remained a week in power. Poincare kept them in line by his appeal to their patriotism. Can they get in line among themselves to overthrow him? That is the problem of May 10.

LIBRARY RESTRICTED FOR USE OF WORKERS ONLY

NEW YORK — Hundreds of applications from scholars, research students and the idly curious for permission to visit the magnificent Pierpont Morgan Library in East 36th-st have deluged the staff since Mr Morgan on February 16, as a memorial to his father, turned the library and its contents over to a board of trustees for the use in perpetuity of scholars.

The waiting list already is so long that no further applications, no matter how meritorious, can be considered until late summer, according to Miss Belle de Costa Greene, the director. Nearly every section of the nation is represented in the list which is the result of careful elimination of sightseeing curiosity seekers and of granting of applications to those intent upon serious utilization of the resources offered by the books and manuscripts of the $7,000,000 collection.

GERMAN SOLDIERS TO TILL PERSIAN FARM DISTRICTS

MAGDEBURG, Germany — Detlef Schmude, a former captain in the German army, is about to lead a company of his former soldiers into Persia, where two big estates west of Teheran comprising about 25,000 acres have been put at their disposal. The land and climate are suitable for the cultivation of cotton, rice, tobacco and tea.

Schmude has been the leader of a colony of ex-soldiers who have been cultivating land near Voelke-but the colonists are dissatisfied with the agricultural and political situation in Germany.

CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER

AKRON — Arnold Lockhart, 30, indicted for second degree murder was found guilty of manslaughter.

ONE FRIEND TELLS ANOTHER

The fame of a successful remedy is often spread far and wide by women telling one another of its merits, as is evidenced by a letter written by Mrs. Delbert Bush of Mascha, N. Y. She writes: "I was in such a bad condition I could hardly walk, a friend who had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with excellent results advised me to try it. It has given me back my health and I cannot praise it enough." There are women everywhere who have been benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and gladly tell their friends and neighbors about it.

YOU POOR KID, WHY ARE YOU SO SKINNY?

Don't your mother know that Cod Liver Oil will put pounds of good healthy flesh on your bones in just a few weeks?

Tell her every druggist has it in sugar-coated tablet form now so that you won't have to take the nasty, fishy-tasting oil that is apt to upset the stomach.

Tell her that McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets are check-full of vitamins and are the greatest flesh producers and health builders she can find.

One sickly, thin kid, aged 9, gained 12 pounds in 7 months.

She must ask Hunter's Drug Stores, Enterprise Drug Store or any good druggist for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Tablets—66 tablets, 66 cents—as pleasant to take as candy.

DEMAND FOR PEPGEN BREAKS ALL RECORDS, HUNDREDS CALL AT HUNTER'S DRUG STORE

C. M. Hunter Wires For Specialist To Come From Dayton Pepgen Laboratory; Will Be In Store On Square Saturday

Is Highly Indorsed By Local Citizens

"The demand for Pepgen, the new discovery for stomach, liver and kidney ailments is the sensation of my experience in the drug business," said Mr. C. M. Hunter, head of The Hunter Drug Store, today to a representative of The Lima News.

"The thinking people of Lima seem to realize that in Pepgen has been discovered a medicine of great merit, one which will relieve the most obstinate case of sickness. Sold as it is, upon a money back guarantee, every citizen of Lima who is suffering with any stomach, liver or kidney complaint, should not hesitate in giving it a trial.

"Great as has been the demand for Pepgen since its introduction here, the demand last week more than doubled that of any previous week. Mr. Hunter has been forced to wire the Pepgen Laboratories to send a man here to assist with the distribution. He will be in the Hunter Drug Store on The Public Square Saturday. No one should fail to take advantage of the opportunity to meet him and learn about the medicine Pepgen.

The proof of the value of Pepgen is the fact that it has been used and publicly indorsed by hundreds of well known Lima people.

LOCAL MAN INDORSES

"This Pepgen has been a great thing for me," said Mr. Douglas McDorman, of 319 Shawnee Ave. Mr. McDorman is an engineer, employed at the Lost Creek Pumping Station.

"All winter I had been feeling kind of run down and worn out. I did not seem to have any ambition to do much of anything. After going to bed early and sleeping for eight or nine hours I would wake up feeling worse than when I went to bed.

"I would have a dull pain across my back too, and my stomach would get bloated up after I would eat anything.

"Everybody in Lima seemed to be talking about this Pepgen so I decided to try a bottle. I am glad that I did for it has fixed me up fine."

"That tired, run out don't care feeling is gone and now I am filled with life and energy and am glad to be alive all the time. My appetite is wonderful. I eat three hearty meals a day and never am troubled with indigestion. Everyone needing a good tonic should sure give this Pepgen a trial."

CAUTION The GENUINE PEPGEN is packed in a white and blue carton and may be obtained in Lima only at The Hunter Drug Store, 49 Public Square, corner Main and Wayne streets and The Argonne Drug Store. Pepgen Stores in nearby towns are:

"MAN'S PHYSICAL GROWTH ENDED"

This is Opinion of Academy of Science President

COLUMBUS—(United Press)—Evolution of the future will be along mental, moral and spiritual lines—not physical.

This prediction is regard to the future of man was made to the United Press today by Kirtley F. Mather, president of the Ohio Academy of Science. The academy is holding its annual convention here.

"A decrease in the forests upon the face of the earth is responsible for the existence of man in his present condition," said Mather.

"Man's ancestors were ape-like creatures living in trees. Climatic changes caused the forests to decrease; great forests were replaced by open plains and as a result these early man were forced to live on the ground."

The evolution of man as we know today started then. He had to look erect from then on. He had to find himself with clubs. He had to shelter in caves and he also began to learn the value of cooperation. "Man has learned to adapt himself to all sorts of climatic conditions, and therefore, I do not believe that we can expect further physical evolution."

The cooperative instinct is the most important. Those groups in the future with the greatest will to cooperate will develop the most."

Calmes, at Independence, La., three years ago, is expected momentarily to confess. All other efforts to avert execution have been exhausted and the prisoners have been informed they will be hanged in pairs. They decide the order in which they shall die.

Calmes, a restaurant operator, found six men robbing a bank and was shot and killed by the single bullet fired from the group. The man who killed Calmes would not confess, none of his companions would name him and all were sentenced to death.

All six are natives of Italy or of Anglo-American parentage and thousands of their fellow countrymen and numerous organizations have supplied funds for their defense.

Gregorio Leona, who came from Italy recently to visit Roy Leona, his brother whom he had not seen in thirteen years, found Roy, one of the six condemned men, last night in a death cell in the Orleans parish prison here.

And with it pain and its probability of reaching the heart.

"Rheumatism? Me? No, indeed, it's all gone, every bit of it! It's sunshine and joy for me now for the first time in years. I feel a wonderful glory again in the free motion I used to have when my days were younger. I look at my hands and think of the twists and swellings they used to have. I bend way over to the floor. I haven't been able to do that in many years. I can thank S. S. S. for it all! To me it was a rising sun of joy and liberty. Brothers and sisters in misery, do not close your eyes and think that health, free motion and strength are gone from you forever! It is not so. It is here and now for all of you. S. S. S. is waiting to help you. There is a reason why S. S. S. will help you. When you increase the number of your red blood-cells, the entire system undergoes a tremendous change. Everything depends on blood-strength. Blood which is minus sufficient red-cells leads to a long list of troubles. Rheumatism is one of them. S. S. S. is the great blood-cleanser, blood-builder, system strengthener, nerve invigorator. It stops skin eruptions, too, pimples, blackheads, acne, boils, eczema. It builds up run-down, tired men and women, beautifies complexions, makes the flesh firmer. Start S. S. S. today. It is sold at all good drug stores. The larger size is more economical.

TRACTION SWITCH WORK SPEEDED

Work on the Pine-st switch between Michael-av and Vine-st is rapidly nearing completion and it is expected the project will be finished by the middle of next week.

Difficulty in tearing out a one-foot layer of stone and concrete under the brick surface of the street has delayed work. When this has been taken out the ties and rails, which are now elevated a foot above the level of the street, will be lowered into position. Concrete for strengthening purposes will then be added, bricks relaid, and the switch will be ready for use, officials say.

Both the new switch and the one immediately south of Eureka-st will be used in the future. This will, however, not necessitate another street car for the line.

SEARCH FOR PLAYERS TO STRENGTHEN LEAGUE TEAM

LOOKS LIKE BOSTON IS A REAL BALL TEAM

Cincinnati and Pittsburg were stopped by rain Thursday. Friday, weather permitting, Mays of Cincinnati will get his introduction to National league batsmen. He is slated to pitch for the Reds. There was much rejoicing thru the Boston Reds pounding the star pitchers of the Yanks in the game at Boston Thursday and winning the game 9-1. Ferguson demonstrated just what a pitcher should be, in allowing the world's champs but five hits, while Hoyt, Rottger and Shields suffered a decided relapse from post-season form, the Boston's hitting for 14 bingles. Wamby—discarded Indian—got a couple of two baggers. Mack's trio of minor league sluggers are beginning well. In the game with Washington, Strand connected for two hits one of them a double while Simmons landed a couple of safeties. The Sox beat the Senators 4-2. Our round sister keeps her batting eye. He landed a couple of safeties, while his team was beaten by the White Sox 6-3. Wayland Dean, the Louisville recruit, and Giants 2-0, and got away to a glorious start Thursday against the Brooklyn's. He struck up against Vance in a pitchers' duel, and the best the Reds could do was six bingles. The game went 10 innings and was decided in that frame when Groh, Frisch and Kelly hit singles. However, it did not in the first inning when Johnson and Fournier hit circuit drives. Two consensus of opinion is that the Pirates have a real ball team this season, and it is confidently expected that they will show their strength as soon as they get their stride.

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—New shortstop promises to figure prominently in the campaign of major league pennant contenders this season. Seven clubs including six in the National and one in the American League, have made shifts in this position since last year.

nection with his new role as manager of the Boston Braves, is the only veteran of the lot. Bancroft's place in the Giant infield has been taken by Travis Jackson, whose utility work last season was an important factor in McGraw's pennant victory.

Brooklyn banks upon Johnny Jones, Pacific Coast recruit, to strengthen the Dodger infield, while Pittsburgh has a highly touted newcomer in Glenn Wright, former Kansas City star, for whom the Pirates made a place by shifting Rabbit Maravilla to the keystone cack.

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—Wayland Dean, McGraw's $50,000 pitcher recruit, got off to an auspicious start here in the New York National's 3 to 2 victory over Brooklyn. Dean engaged in a brilliant twirling duel with Vance which was decided in the 10th inning on singles by Groh, Frisch and Kelly.

Johnson, and Fournier hit Dean for home runs in the first inning, but the youngster quickly settled, only two hits being made off him after the third inning. A home run by Groh tied up the score in the fifth inning for the Giants.

The relays which will be an annual affair, will be officially inaugurated Friday night with a dinner in honor of visiting coaches. Plans for next year's relays will be discussed along with track matters in general.

FOLEY'S GOING TO RUN

WINTERSVILLE, Mass.—Peter W. Foley, Winterville, old timer, now approaching his seventieth milestone, has not given up the idea of running his marathon course of 26 miles 385 yards, from Hopkinton to Boston tomorrow. Altho barred from the race for many years because of his age, Foley plans to run independently.

Foley says: "I expect to go over the marathon course Saturday, just let the old game know I have a bone left but if I do not get back on my feet I can look for me about 4 weeks Saturday afternoon at Massachusetts."

HALLORAN IS COMBING COUNTRY FOR PLAYERS

With only two weeks remaining before the Ohio-Indiana baseball league officially opens with the appearance in Lima on Sunday May 4, of Angola club at Murphy-st ball grounds, Manager Bernie Halloran is busy gathering together the ball club that is to represent Lima on the diamond this season.

Negotiations underway with the best baseball players in the professional ranks of Ohio, Indiana and Pennsylvania indicates that Halloran will spare no expense in giving Lima fans a brand of baseball unquestionable and place the team among the leaders for the pennant.

While the roster of the team is incomplete and Halloran is timid in announcing the probable lineup for the opener, it is assured that Ralph Herring and Eli Main will be the battery to carry Lima thru to victory over the Indiana aggregation in the initial game which is anxiously looked forward to by thousands of fans here who remember the brilliant close of the 1923 season at Murphy-st grounds.

Herring is rated as the best catcher in Ohio and by securing his name to a contract the local management has filled one of the most important positions of the team. Herring left behind a host of friends after his 1920 season in Lima.

CAUGHT FOR NORWOOD.
Last year he caught for the fast Norwood club, semi-pro champs of southern Ohio. Halloran started negotiations with Herring last winter when the league proposition was in the making. When it was assured that an eight team league would clash for honors, Halloran signed up Herring, who has repeated offers from other teams but prefers to play in Lima.

Eli Main is another player signed with Lima. He hung up an enviable record last year in the Virginia league and his prospects for going into faster company were bright, but he decided against playing professional baseball as a means of livelihood and left the professional ranks to enter Ohio Northern university at Ada.

This move made it possible for Halloran to sign him and ever since the advent of warm weather Main has been limbering his arm up each day and when he steps into the box at Murphy field he will be in mid-season form. Main pitched in Lima four years ago. Since then he has played in fast company and in the Virginia league he was considered one of the smartest mounders in addition to being one of the leading hurlers of the league.

Halloran is dickering with many of the leading ball players of the state and in a few days a definite lineup announcement will be made for information of those who are anxiously awaiting news of Lima's team.

"PRINCE BUSINESS TOO MUCH"

Duke of Talleyrand Explains Offer to Sell Nation

RIGHTS ARE VERY LIMITED

Will Not Dispose of Title, Tho, He Declares

BY JOHN DEGANDE
PARIS.—(United Press)—"This prince business is too much trouble."

That, in a sentence, sums up the reasons the Duke of Talleyrand De Perigord has put his principality of Sagan on the auction block.

"My rights as Prince of Sagan are very limited," the duke explained, in an interview with the United Press today, "and there are too many duties."

"I have nothing to do with the title of the principality and have little authority. In fact, I've nothing except my titles, my lands and my chateau."

"My subjects are dependents of Germany."

The duke saw nothing unusual in offering his entire nation of 500 square miles, 65,000 inhabitants, capital city, river full of fish and all for sale with a description as coldly matter of fact, as an auctioneer's ledger for a Kansas farm.

WON'T SELL TITLE
"It's strictly a business proposition with me," the duke, wealthy husband of Anna Gould, added. "However, I'll not sell my title as prince of the principality, under any consideration. That has been in the family too many years."

De Perigord said he had no idea what the property would bring and did not believe any offers for it had yet been received by his agents.

"Anyhow," he added, "that's a problem for my minister of finance." The principality which the duke announced as "for sale" yesterday is situated between Silesia and Brandenburg and has existed since 1849 when the king of Bohemia made a gift of it to the great military leader, Wallenstein. It has been in the Talleyrand family since 1845.

De Perigord as ruler of the principality, has the title of "his serene highness, the Prince of Sagan."

One of the reasons for the pro-

A CHAMP AT 12

George Pfeil, Jr., of San Francisco, wouldn't have a bit of trouble landing a job if he started out looking for one. For he is some typist! Right now he is hammering out 120 words a minute. But he isn't in the market for any offers yet. He is only 12, you see, and figures he will go to school a while longer. But the time he's 16 he hopes to set a new professional speed record. It's 150 words a minute now.

Agents of the duke in Berlin are in charge of the sale, which Perigord says must be to a single client, rather than to any sort of a syndicate.

For Your Back and Kidneys You Will Have Vigorous Vitality if You Follow This Advice

Columbus, Ohio.—"Dr. Pierce's An-uric (kidney and backache) Tablets are the best medicine I have ever taken for kidney disorders. My kidneys were congested and inactive, my back ached and was so sore I could not bear to touch it. In addition to my kidneys hurting, my bladder was very weak. I wrote to Dr. Pierce for advice and upon his advice I took the Anuric Tablets and the result was wonderful. I had taken Anuric only a very short time when I was rid of all my bladder weakness and my kidneys became active and normal. I do not suffer any more with my back. I would advise those who suffer with any kidney disorder or bladder trouble to take 'Anuric' without delay."—Monford Slagle, 447 W. Rich St.

Help your weakened kidneys by obtaining this "An-uric" (anti-uric acid) of Dr. Pierce's at your nearest drug store or send 10c for trial pkg. to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., or write for free medical advice.

LIQUOR TRACED IN DAUGHERTY QUIZ

Witness Tells of Big Seized Cargo Disappearing

GILLET LINKED WITH CASE

Some Went to Speaker's Office, Ex-Investigator Says

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press)—Minute details of the Savannah liquor conspiracy case, in which 78 persons have been sentenced to the penitentiary, were recited before the Daugherty investigating committee today by Clark Grier, who described himself as a prominent Georgia Republican and former "informant" of the department of justice.

The witness declared there had been long delay in prosecuting the cases after he laid all the facts before the department, and that his report was followed by his "discharge" by William J. Burns at the instance of John L. Phillips, the Republican state chairman, who he charged was involved in the liquor cases.

An indictment against Phillips in a lumber fraud case is pending in the District of Columbia.

H. L. Scaife, also a former department of justice investigator, corroborated Grier's testimony as to his separation from the department after the Savannah report was submitted.

LIQUOR MISSING
Scaife also charged that some liquor seized some years ago in Washington but which disappeared from storage resulting in a grand jury inquiry, went to the "office of Speaker Gillett."

Committee members discussed whether they should let this statement stand in the record and the witness named Gaston B. Means as one of his informants and declared six department of justice witnesses could confirm his statement. He denied any personal knowledge of the transaction.

The liquor referred to, Scaife said, was seized at the union station here in 1918, 1919 or 1920 and the entire consignment, valued at $50,000, disappeared. A grand jury investigated it, he said, but found no ground for indictments.

According to reports "some of this liquor went to the office of Speaker Gillett."

George H. Maxwell, director of the National Reclamation Association, was called before the committee to explain statements made by him in a letter to Senator Ashurst, Democrat, Arizona, charging a "Fall-Davis scheme to steal the Colorado river."

The witness was heard at a hastily assembled meeting of the committee which previously had announced it would stand in recess until next week. His letter to Senator Ashurst had said the committee was "on the trail of the serpent" and that a similar opportunity to get at the facts as to who was "trying to steal the Colorado river from Arizona" might not come again in a thousand years.

Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, objected to taking up the Colorado river controversy in irrelevant and Chairman Brookhart agreed "unless he connects it with the department of justice in some way."

Maxwell then said the letter was sent under a "misapprehension" as the committee he had in mind was "the reclamation committee."

He admitted that he had no "personal" information as to the department of justice. He was excused.

Cecil H. Kerns, an Ohio drug company operator, now out on parole from Atlanta penitentiary after conviction on bootlegging charges, was recalled to the stand. He said department of justice officials told him yesterday that Federal Judge Killits in Ohio "had reported unfavorably" upon his parole and had started a move to have him returned for confinement.

Rev. Raymond Gorman, of the St. Marys Seminary, Norwalk, will spend Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Gorman, N. West-st.

WHY FISH LEAVE HOME ---

HALF A LEG, HALF A LEG, ONWARD! DON'T GIVE UP THE HIP!
CRY BATHING MAIDS FIGHTING FOR FREEDOM OF THE KNEES

BY HORTENSE SAUNDERS

WHAT'S wrong with this picture? Absolutely nothing—particularly with the ukelele player on the end, I hear you yodel as you polish your tortoise-shells and settle down for closer application.

However, this strip of pulchritude has its message. Reformers, park inspectors, policemen, life-savers and knitted goods merchants, please take notice.

This picture reveals more than legs—it reveals the crying need of our country before June—the standardization of the bathing suit.

When these models were shown at a recent fashion show in New York they brought home to us the deplorable condition that exists. In some states your bathing suit must not miss your knee by more than one inch. In others you may have a leeway of two inches. Florida got reckless and allowed four inches, so Atlantic City raised the ante to six.

With excellent sportsmanship the women are standing the raises, but of course, if a woman is to travel much, the number of bathing suits she must have is quite an item. What is perfectly tame on the Pacific coast may start a riot on the Atlantic.

According to our present standards—or lack of standards—the second lady from the left dropped out about the first hand. She must feel quite out of it with the others of the group who stayed in the game.

Yet there are those alarmists who believe that if the contest goes on and all bathers adopt the style at the extreme right there will be such a rush of applicants for coast guard work there will be no young men left on the farms to take care of the wheat crop this summer and the factories will have to close because of a lack of response to their "help wanted" ads.

What's to be done?

TRY THIS ON YOURS!

The Bureau of Standards, Washington, has devised this improved measuring board for babies for the U. S. Children's Bureau. All that you have to do is keep baby still. That's all.

SOLOMON WIESENTHAL DIES AFTER ILLNESS

Solomon Wiesenthal, of 645 W. Elm-st., died shortly after noon Friday at St. Rita's hospital following an illness of one week from pneumonia. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Ruth.

Wiesenthal was 63 years of age and a pioneer Lima resident. He has been engaged in the clothing business for many years, with offices in the Cincinnati-bldg. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Lima Club. No funeral arrangements have been made.

CARTER BRINGS FILMS OF TUT TOMB TO U. S.

NEW YORK—Howard Carter, American who assisted the late Lord Carnarvon in the excavation of Pharaoh Tutankhamen's tomb in the Valley of Kings, Egypt, arrives in New York today on the steamship Berengaria. He is bringing motion pictures showing the various stages of the excavations.

Speaker and Bobby

Tris Speaker and Bobby Jones met for the first time on an Atlanta golf course the other day. The Indiana manager was in rare form and gave the open champion an interesting battle, losing by a decent margin. "I suppose you'd call it decent," commented Speaker. "He only beat me three holes in a nine-hole match, and I suspect he was taking things easy at that."

FAMILIES MOVE

GILBOA — Several Gilboa families have changed their place of residence this week. Willard Huffman moved from the farm, which was recently bought by J. D. Gable, to his property in town. Charles Stetler moved from the Huffman house to the Nucky property. Mrs. Nucky moved to the Eliza Stetler house, and Robert Baker moved from the Stetler house to the Huffman farm.

LIQUOR TRACED IN DAUGHERTY QUIZ

Witness Tells of Big Seized Cargo Disappearing

GILLET LINKED WITH CASE

Some Went to Speaker's Office, Ex-Investigator Says

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press)—Minute details of the Savannah liquor conspiracy case, in which 78 persons have been sentenced to the penitentiary, were recited before the Daugherty investigating committee today by Clark Grier, who described himself as a prominent Georgia Republican and former "informant" of the department of justice.

The witness declared there had been long delay in prosecuting the cases after he laid all the facts before the department, and that his report was followed by his "discharge" by William J. Phillips, the Republican state chairman, who he charged was involved in the liquor cases.

An indictment against Phillips in a lumber fraud case is pending in the District of Columbia.

H. L. Scaife, also a former department of justice investigator, corroborated Grier's testimony as to his separation from the department after the Savannah report was submitted.

LIQUOR MISSING

Scaife also charged that some liquor seized some years ago in Washington but which disappeared from storage resulting in a grand jury inquiry, went to the "office of Speaker Gillett."

Committee members discussed whether they should let this statement stand in the record and the witness named Gaston B. Means as one of his informants and declared six department of justice witnesses could confirm his statement. He denied any personal knowledge of the transaction.

The liquor referred to, Scaife said, was seized at the union station here in 1918, 1919 or 1920 and the entire consignment, valued at $50,000, disappeared. A grand jury investigated it, he said, but found no ground for indictments.

According to reports "some of this liquor went to the office of Speaker Gillett."

George H. Maxwell, director of the National Reclamation Association, was called before the committee to explain statements made by him in a letter to Senator Ashurst, Democrat, Arizona, charging a "Fall-Davis scheme to steal the Colorado river."

The witness was heard at a hastily assembled meeting of the committee which previously had announced it would stand in recess until next week. His letter to Senator Ashurst had said the committee was "on the trail of the serpent" and that a similar opportunity to get at the facts as to who was "trying to steal the Colorado river from Arizona" might not come again in a thousand years. Senator Jones, Republican, Washington, objected to taking up the Colorado river controversy as irrelevant and Chairman Brookhart agreed "unless he connects it with the department of justice in some way."

Maxwell then said the letter was sent under a "misapprehension" as the committee he had in mind was "the reclamation committee."

He admitted that he had no "personal" information as to the department of justice. He was excused.

Cecil H. Kerns, an Ohio drug company operator, now out on parole from Atlanta penitentiary after conviction on bootlegging charges, was recalled to the stand. He said department of justice officials told him yesterday that Federal Judge Killits in Ohio "had reported unfavorably" upon his parole and had started a move to have him returned for confinement.

Rev. Raymond Gorman, of the St. Marys Seminary, Norwood, will spend Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Gorman, N. West-st.

WHY FISH LEAVE HOME ---

HALF A LEG, HALF A LEG, ONWARD! DON'T GIVE UP THE HIP! CRY BATHING MAIDS FIGHTING FOR FREEDOM OF THE KNEES

BY HORTENSE SAUNDERS

WHAT'S wrong with this picture? Absolutely nothing—particularly with the ukelele player on the end, I hear you yodel as you polish your tortoise-shells and settle down for closer application.

However, this strip of pulchritude has its message. Reformers, park inspectors, policemen, life-savers and knitted goods merchants, please take notice.

This picture reveals more than legs—it reveals the crying need of our country before June—the standardization of the bathing suit.

When these models were shown at a recent fashion show in New York they brought home to us the deplorable condition that exists. In some states your bathing suit must not miss your knee by more than one inch. In others you may have a leeway of two inches. Florida got reckless and allowed four inches, so Atlantic City raised the ante to six.

With excellent sportsmanship the women are standing the raises, but of course, if a woman is to travel much, the number of bathing suits she must have is quite an item. What is perfectly tame on the Pacific coast may start a riot on the Atlantic.

According to our present standards—or lack of standards—the second lady from the left dropped out about the first hand. She must feel quite out of it with the others of the group who stayed in the game.

Yet there are those alarmists who believe that if the contest goes on and all bathers adopt the style at the extreme right there will be such a rush of applicants for coast guard work there will be no young men left on the farms to take care of the wheat crop this summer and the factories will have to close because of a lack of response to their "help wanted" ads.

What's to be done?

TRY THIS ON YOURS!

The Bureau of Standards, Washington, has devised this improved measuring board for babies for the U. S. Children's Bureau. All that you have to do is keep baby still. That's all.

SOLOMON WIESENTHAL DIES AFTER ILLNESS

Solomon Wiesenenthal, of 645 W. Elm-st., died shortly after noon Friday at St. Rita's hospital following an illness of one week from pneumonia. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, Ruth.

Wiesenenthal was 63 years of age and a pioneer Lima resident. He has been engaged in the clothing business for many years, with offices in the Cincinnati-bldg. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and the Lima Club. No funeral arrangements have been made.

CARTER BRINGS FILMS OF TUT TOMB TO U. S.

NEW YORK—Howard Carter, American who assisted the late Lord Carnarvon in the excavation of Pharaoh Tutankhamen's tomb in the Valley of Kings, Egypt, arrives in New York today on the steamship Berengaria. He is bringing motion pictures showing the various stages of the excavations.

Speaker and Bobby

Tris Speaker and Bobby Jones met for the first time on an Atlanta golf course the other day. The Indians' manager was in rare form and gave the open champion an interesting battle, losing by a decent margin. "I suppose you'd call it a decent match," commented Speaker. "He only beat me three holes in a nine-hole match, and I suspect he was taking things easy at that."

FAMILIES MOVE

GILBOA — Several Gilboa families have changed their place of residence this week. Willard Huffman moved from the farm, which was recently bought by J. D. Gable, to his property in town. Charles Stetler moved from the Huffman house to the Nuskay property. Mrs. Nuskay moved to the Eliza Stetler house, and Robert Baker moved from the Stetler house to the Huffman farm.

TOURISTS HELD UP BY QUARANTINE

Auto Parties Appeal to California Governor for Aid

EL CENTRO, Calif.—(Associated Press)—Additional deputy sheriffs were being sent from here today to preserve order at Kolb, Calif., the desert point fifty miles east, where nearly 500 automobile tourists have been prevented from crossing the Colorado river into Arizona in accordance with that state's embargo on vehicular traffic from California.

Tales of hardship among the stranded motorists continued to emphasize the gravity of the situation.

Last night an appeal for aid was telegraphed to Governor Richardson of California on behalf of the tourists, many of whom are said to be practically without funds and growing desperate over the possibility of a long and costly wait before being allowed to cross the state line. In addition the food shortage and the difficulty of obtaining water are said to be growing more acute daily.

NEEDLES, Calif.—(Associated Press)—Several hundred eastbound automobile tourists today were trying to make the best of an enforced sojourn in this desert town while waiting for Arizona foot and mouth disease quarantine officials to let them cross the Colorado river and enter Arizona after a three fumigation at Tonopah.

Meanwhile reports from Phoenix, Ariz., that the embargo on all vehicular traffic from California would remain in force indefinitely indicated that Needles might still be housing the stranded a week hence.

Food here is plentiful and there is no water shortage.

SUSPECTS IDENTIFIED AS AKRON ROBBERS

AKRON — Three suspects arrested in Detroit, were positively identified today as the bandits who robbed the American Hard Rubber Co. here Wednesday of a $16,000 payroll.

Nick Slawekow, one of the suspects, confessed and implicated the other two, police claim.

Akron and Detroit police now are following a "tip" that a fourth man is in hiding in Detroit with the remainder of the money, about $9,000. The three men arrested in Detroit, had about $7,000 with them when arrested.

WHEN AN ALARM IS SWEET MUSIC

An alarm clock's tinkle is sweetest music in all the world to a calf belonging to Robert Ralph of Wall Lake, Iowa. Ralph grew tired of feeding his calf twice a day, so he invented an automatic calf-feeder. When feeding time arrives, the clock goes off, calls the calf and sets into motion the device which does the feeding. A string, attached to the alarm bell's clapper, releases a ball which, in turn, opens the shoot which lets the grain slide from the hopper into the feeding trough below.

DOCTORS AMAZED IN OPERATION ON WOMAN

TOLEDO — (United Press) — One of the most astounding discoveries in medical history was made in St. Vincent's Hospital here when an operation for a "tumor" revealed that an aged Toledo woman had carried for 51 years the perfectly formed body of an unborn baby girl.

The woman, 74, died shortly after the operation. Her death was caused by a combination of diseases due to old age, doctors said.

The baby's body when taken from the woman, was in a shell or capsule of flesh, weighing six pounds. Blood vessels feeding from the mother's body, kept the flesh of the child from decaying, but the heart and other organs ceased functioning shortly after the scheduled time of birth.

Stop the children's coughs at once!

DON'T let them run on until dangerous complications set in. Nothing so quickly stops coughing as Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. It combines just the medicines your doctor prescribes with the old time remedy, pine-tar honey. Hard packed phlegm loosens and clears away—the inflammation is reduced—normal breathing is restored. Excellent for young and old alike! It tastes good, too. Keep Dr. Bell's on hand for all the family.

All druggists. Be sure to get the genuine.

COOLIDGE PILOTS QUIET MEETING

Trickery Charged at Mock Republican Convention

CHICAGO — (United Press) — Charges of political trickery were made today in connection with the presidential nomination of Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin by a mock Republican national convention at the University of Chicago last night.

"The entire LaFollette business was framed by a group of radicals in the political science department," C. D. McBride, a senior and president of the Coolidge Club, declared. "It was carefully plotted by LaFollette workers who wanted it said the University of Chicago favors the Wisconsin senator."

McBride refused to place the name of President Coolidge in nomination because he charged the convention was dominated by "radicals and reds." He declared he refused to nominate any real American on the platform, which called for recognition of Russia, total disarmament, continuation of the "gentlemen's agreement" with Japan, independence of the Philippines and other similar planks. McBride then bolted the convention, followed by several solid Coolidge delegations.

LaFollette was nominated on the first ballot, receiving 199 votes. President Coolidge was given 96; of Senator Hiram Johnson 31; Senator Borah 19; Secretary of Commerce Hoover 11; and former Governor Lowden of Illinois 3.

PLANS IN TRIAL OF THAW UPSET

Changed Because of Millionaire's Failure to Testify

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—(United Press)—The entire aspect of Harry Thaw's sanity trial has been changed by collapse of the original plan to have the millionaire testify on his behalf and tell his story to the jury.

There is now going on behind the scenes than on the surface and the ensuing three days until the hearing is resumed Monday morning will be busy ones for the opposing counsel.

There is, of course, no possibility of compromise on the main issue involved; the jury must decide the original three questions:

- 1—Is Harry Thaw of sound mind at the present time?
- 2—Is he sane to be at large among his fellow men?
- 3—Is he capable of managing his estates?

But there are cross-currents in the turbulent waters into which Thaw has launched his move for freedom and these become of increasing importance as a result of his failure to prove in person to the jury that he is of apparently sound mind.

OHIOAN HELD IN SHOOTING CASE

Cincinnati Man Taken by Police at Dayton

DAYTON, — (Associated Press)—Dayton police were holding Dave Leaverton, 25, of Cincinnati, today, for police of that city following his arrest in Dayton yesterday afternoon. Leaverton, police say, was the companion of John Craft, of Cincinnati, who was shot Wednesday night by Policeman Norman Cline, when he assisted Leaverton to escape from a Greenfield policeman who tried to arrest him in a Greenfield pool room.

With the arrest of Leaverton an expensive automobile stolen from Lester Jacob of Cincinnati was recovered and is being held here for the owner.

Graft was shot in the abdomen, but reports from Greenfield say that he will recover and will soon be ready to face charges of assault with intent to kill which will be placed against him as the result of the fight with Policeman Cline.

STORE ROBBED EAST LIVERPOOL.—A gang of robbers looted the W. T. Holloway and Sons clothing and drygoods store in Columbiana near here early today, escaping in an automobile with merchandise valued at $1,500. The store safe was untouched.

HUBBY WINS FIGHT FOR MEN'S RIGHTS

AKRON, O. — (Special) — John Brittain finally has won his fight for the protection of "man's inviolate rights."

No longer now can Wiley lock Hubby out when he comes home late.

The courts—here at least—won't stand for it.

John Brittain has won his fight, at last.

For two long years, John's wife, Minerva, maintained a "closed door policy" against him. She just wouldn't let him in.

John stood it a long time. Then his patience became exhausted.

And there were other men in the same boat, he knew.

So John, tired of being left out in the cold, sought the aid of Judge

JOHN BRITTAIN

But John, who he won considerable ground, didn't achieve complete victory. For when he moved in, Minerva and their eight children moved out.

"The court may make me unlock the doors," says Mrs. Brittain, "but it can't force me to live with that man."

"He's a nuisance. We're better off without him."

SKAT THINKS OF FOOD AND GRINS

With his head held high like the rusted lightning-rod on the old chicken-coop which helps occupy the back yard in which he is sitting, Skat, with his left hat on the same hip, sits serenely licking his chops. He disagreed with those fool weather-men Friday night when they said fair and warmer and got showers, and he is tickled pink at having finally put one over on dumbbells. T. L. e chop-licking, however, results from one of Skat's soliloquies regarding probable juicy feasts soon when old man spring gets busy on the fruits and vegetables, as is predicted in Saturday's program, which says slightly warmer.

PASTOR-DEPUTY'S OUSTER SOUGHT IN PETITION

LESLIE, Mich. — The petition seeking the dismissal of Rev. Lloyd Mead, pastor-deputy who has become the storm center of the town, will be "treated lightly," it was indicated at the sheriff's office today. Mead himself declared he would not get out of town as his enemies demanded.

When grandfather was a little boy

EVERY fall there would come a day when his mother would say to his father, "John, it's time to see about the children's shoes."

Shoes were matters to reckon with in great-grandfather's family. As in many other families of the countryside, calves had to be killed and skinned. The skins were taken to a tannery across the river, and in due time young John would set off with the leather to the cobbler to have his measure taken.

Old Sam, the cobbler, was a friend of the family. They knew him. They knew his work. They knew the quality of the leather they had furnished him. They could have estimated pretty accurately the time young John's shoes would wear him.

Those days are gone forever. No longer do you know personally the makers of your shoes. Your clothing, your food, your furniture, your household utilities are produced by men and women you will never see.

That element of confidence, however, which is former days came from personal contact of neighbor with neighbor and friend with friend is still present.

Nowadays, advertising is the bond between manufacturer and consumer; between merchant and patron.

Through advertising, maker and dealer build with you their reputations.

Through advertising, they make a bid for your friendship.

To them, your friendship is essential, and to assure it, they see to it that their goods are as advertised.

By reading advertisements, you know where and what you can buy with confidence.

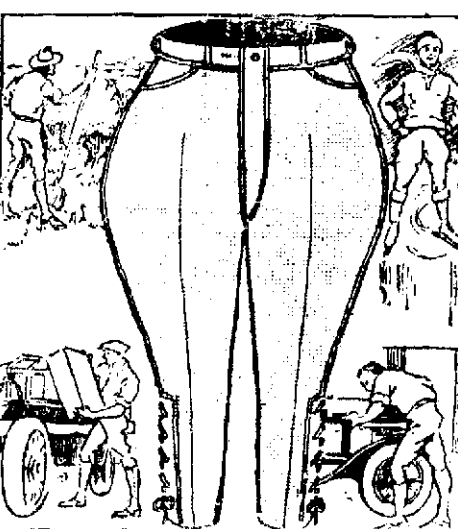

In buying advertised goods the element of risk is removed

MAN IS HELD IN WOMAN'S DEATH

New York Movie Operator Charged With Murder

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—Harry Hoffman, a motion picture operator, arrested last night and questioned for seven hours in connection with investigation of the murder March 25 of Mrs. Maude Bauer, today was formally charged with the crime.

He pleaded not guilty to a charge of homicide and was held without bail for further hearing Monday.

His arrest followed a severe cross-examination last night by police who said they had found numerous discrepancies in his latest story and the one told them when he previously was questioned. While he was being examined a young woman identified him as a man who, some time ago, took her to a lonely spot in Staten Island and attacked her.

The police said Hoffman had become acquainted with Mrs. Bauer thru her attendance at a motion picture theatre where he worked. Detectives said they had in their possession a .25 calibre automatic pistol which was sent by Hoffman to his brother four days after the murder. Mrs. Bauer was killed by a bullet from a similar weapon.

Hoffman confessed he had conspired with his brother to tell the police that he had sent him the gun on a previous date. Detective Captain Van Wagner said today.

GRADUATION—The annual commencement of Cranfs College High school will be Thursday, May 15. Fourteen young people will graduate.

BABY OF CONGRESS

Representative Clarence J. McLeod, "baby of Congress," gets tired hobnobbing with the older folks all the time. So whenever there's a recess, he wanders around near the capitol looking for some of the kids who live 'roundabout, just to have a chat with folks a trifle near his own age. Detroit sent McLeod to the House when he was only 25, the youngest man who ever sat in Congress. At 28 he's still the youngest member.

Damage amounting to $10 was caused by fire at 1 p. m. Friday when sparks from a defective flue caused a roof fire at the Lena Albright residence, which is occupied by J. R. Hardy and family.

MARRIAGE LICENSES—Russell Sage Derbyshire, 30, contractor, Harrod hotel, and Cora E. Lorton, 28, teacher, 156 Grove-st.

NEW CHURCH—The Pleasant Grove church is rapidly nearing completion. The church was destroyed by fire two years ago and is being rebuilt. Women of the church will hold a market Saturday at the office of Guy Kersh in Ottawa, proceeds of which will be applied to the new church.

NEW BUSES ARE BOUGHT BY I. C. & E. RAILWAY

Installation of 20 tassel buses by the I. C. & E. Interurban line on their bus routes between Springfield and Lake View and between Columbus, Newark and Zanesville will be seen soon, reports from Columbus indicate.

These buses are made in California and the contract is said to amount to approximately $160,000. The purchase was made thru Day & Zimmerman, operators for the Drexel-Morgan interests.

While the I. C. & E. touches Lima and while Lima motor truck companies manufacture large passenger buses, it is understood that bids were not even asked of local firms.

Bids will be received by the state highway department May 2, for a 900 foot section on the Harding highway from the Pennsylvania tracks at Scott's Crossing to the river bridge, according to notice received from G. F. Schlesinger, state engineer, to county commissioners Friday.

Tax returns are coming in slowly. County Auditor C. R. Phillips reported Friday. He urges property owners not to delay filing until the last day. May 1, is the last date for filing to be eligible for the $100 exemption.

TAVIANO IS FINED $300

"Dump All Wine," Court Orders As Penalty

Chester Kraicinski, Polish machinist, 410 E. Second-st., initial offender, arrested in the clean up on home brewers and vintners inaugurated by the state prohibition department in Lima, pleaded not guilty to a charge of illegal possession of beer before Judge J. H. Hamilton, Friday.

He was released on $1,000 bond to appear for trial on April 22. Kraicinski was arrested Thursday when prohibition agents and Deputy Sheriff O'Brien and Smith raided his house.

Nearly 100 bottles of home brew were confiscated. Chemical analysis made by J. R. Cuthbert, city chemist, showed the brew contained in excess of 3 per cent alcohol.

Kraicinski, it is claimed by county officers, has been operating for a long time, without interference. More than a bushel basket of empty whisky flasks were found in the house.

The contents is said to have added zest to a party held in the home about one week ago.

ADmits Guilt
Joe Taviano, Italian insurance agent, 223 E. Vine-st., pleaded guilty to illegal possession of liquor in probate court Friday.

Officers were on his trail all day Thursday and a greater part of the night, but he gave them the slip. Friday morning he appeared in probate court accompanied by an attorney.

He admitted possession of a still and whisky.

"I was a fool to have them in the house," he told the court.

The still and whisky were concealed in a secret compartment underneath a stairway. By pulling three nails, officers declared, a panel slid back, disclosing the still.

Taviano was fined $300 and costs on a charge of possession, and a charge of manufacturing held over his head as an insurance of future good conduct.

More than 200 gallons of wine, found in his cellar was ordered dumped by the court. Judge Hamilton one time fined the defendant when tried for possession of the wine. He ordered it dumped Friday, he said, because illicit whisky was found in the house.

Return Of Pastor And Jesus Christ Waited By Flock

DALLAS, Tex. — (United Press) —Rev. John Quincy Adams' little flock of fervent worshippers waited faithfully today for the joint return of their pastor and Jesus Christ.

The "Holy Roller" parson left town Monday in a flier after collecting enough funds from his devoted congregation to "finance" the return of the Lord on Easter Sunday. The county grand jury is looking for him, following complaint of welfare workers that the little colony was in derelict circumstances.

Mrs. H. P. Conkle, one of the leaders of the Pentecostal Church, told the United Press today she was confident Rev. Adams would return on schedule.

Mrs. Conkle, a widow with six children, sold all her worldly possessions in anticipation of the end of the world, and the return of Christ.

"We pledged our faith in Rev. Adams at a meeting Monday," she said. "I sold my home and other worldly belongings when our pastor told us the end of the world was near and to prepare for the coming of Christ."

Welfare workers said the majority of the Holy Rollers had sold out their possessions and were in needy circumstances.

The "rolling parson" they said, "flew" away with at least $5,000.

POTNAM-CO FARMERS TO ATTEND LIVESTOCK DAY

OTTAWA — A company of Putnam-co farmers, led by J. W. Hanner, county agricultural agent, will attend livestock day at the Experiment station, Wooster, on next Friday. Discussion of important problems by livestock men and inspection of more than 100 cattle, 200 hogs and several flocks of sheep will characterize the meeting.

QUITS $3,500 JOB

Elsie Janis Cancels Keith Vaudeville Contract

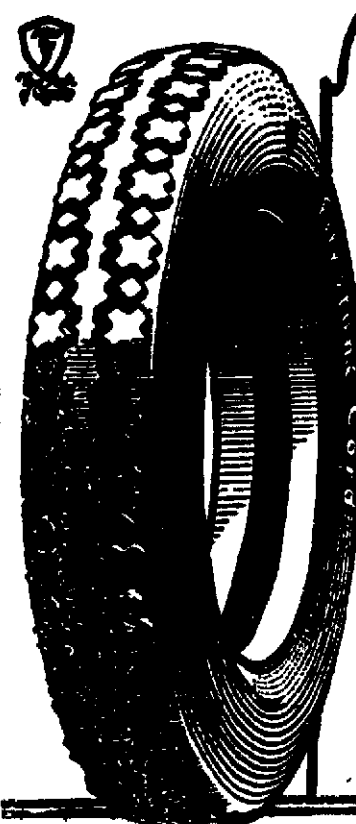

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) —Elsie Janis, actress, yesterday cancelled her contract with the B. F. Keith Vaudeville organization and quit a local engagement she had begun Monday because she was advertised as a co-star instead of the sole star of the vaudeville bill. It was learned today. Her contract called for $3,500 weekly salary.

Miss Janis said she refused to appear last night and cancelled the contract because the advertising of her appearance was not the same as regularly accorded her. It was explained she had always been advertised as the only star whereas this week's announcements co-starred her with James Barton. The management asserted the terms of the contract had been fulfilled and that Miss Janis' action was the result of "temperament." It was stated that she demanded that her name be put on a banner in front of the theatre to the exclusion of any other artists on "a bill and that the demand was refused.

Clothing club leaders of Rockport community, announced thru H. J. Ridge, county farm agent, are Mrs. Glen Mayberry, leader of the older girls and Miss Catherine Weeks, leader of the younger girls. Miss Weeks was a member last year of the older girls' group.

D. L. Tracy, was appointed administrator of the estate of the late Margaret Ridenour, Marion-twp. in probate court Friday. Heirs are Florence Wheatstone, Chicago; Inez Morgan, Comer; Margaret Wheatstone, Chicago. Value of the estate is $5,750. Appraisers are Ross Harrod, S. D. Critz and Levi Baxter.

MISSING TEACHER IS LOCATED

At Cambridge Home of Man Ac-cused of Kidnaping Her

WEDS ALLEGED ABDUCTOR

Information is Given Out by His Mother

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio — (United Press.)—Lola Trimble, 19, missing Mansfield school teacher, is at the home of Mrs. J. W. Hicks here, Mrs. Hicks admitted today.

Mrs. Hicks, mother of Albert Hicks, charged with abducting Miss Trimble, said the young couple were married yesterday at Newport, where she had accompanied them from here Wednesday.

WILL SEEK ANNULMENT — MANSFIELD — (United Press.)—Parents of Lola Trimble, 19-year-old school teacher, whose sudden departure from her home last Monday led to a warrant for the arrest of Albert Hicks of Cambridge, on charge of abduction, will seek to have any marriage of their daughter annulled.

They said today that while their daughter may have married Hicks, they think she had no such intention when she suddenly left home. The parents said, however, they would await her story before determining whether they will have the marriage annulled, if any marriage has taken place. The Trimble family received a letter from the mother of Albert Hicks, asking for information concerning him.

Prosecuting Attorney A. S. Beach, at the request of Miss Trimble's parents, wired police at Monroe, Mich., Covington and Louisville, Ky., to arrest the couple if they appeared there.

What action will be taken by Beach if the couple obtained a license elsewhere in the state, has not been determined. He said such a license would have to be secured by fraudulent statement by Miss Trimble, and he would act on instructions from the girl's parents.

"Laura, you know my principles and I hope you will have faith in me," said a letter, received yesterday, by the missing girl's sister, postmarked at Cleveland. "Trust me and everything will come out all right," said another part of the letter. "I am all right and will send you my address later."

Dempsey's Manager Charged With Disorderly Conduct

LOS ANGELES. — (United Press.)—Jack Kearns, internationally known boxing promoter, and manager of Heavyweight Champion Jack Dempsey, was lodged in the city jail here today on a charge of being drunk and disorderly.

Kearns was arrested shortly before 7 a. m. at Sixth and Flower-sts. He was sitting in an automobile with five other men.

The patrolmen attempted to arrest the sextet, whereupon Kearns, emulating his protégé, is alleged to have set upon them, using some of Dempsey's choice uppercuts and crosses and it took two policemen to subdue him, they said.

In the machine, a quart bottle, partly filled with whisky, was found, the police said.

MOHLER BARN FIRE CLAIMS PAID

$9,000 Settlement as Balm for Properly Losses

SON MEETS FOUR CLAIMS

Civil Actions Dismissed Upon Settlement in Court

Settlement of $9,000 for the destruction of two large barns on the Gratz farm near Bluffton, last November, was made Friday in common pleas court by Jesse Mohler, son of William Mohler, murderer and arsonist, now confined in Lima state hospital.

Three actions filed by Sam, Chris and Homer Gratz, and the Monomite Mutual Aid Society of Allen, Putnam and Hancock counties for $14,245 for the value of the barns, were dismissed.

The sum of the settlement totaled $9,000. The Monomite insurance society received the sum to $4,000 out of the total amount. Sam Gratz received $4,500, Chris Gratz got $750 and Homer Gratz received $750.

The money was for the two barns which Mohler admitted burning. Destruction of the barns drew attention to the old man and he fell under suspicion. He was tried for his sanity, but found sane.

A little more than a month later, Mrs. Catherine Mohler, his wife, disappeared.

January 13 her mangled and decomposed body, backed and cut to pieces, was found buried in an old cistern. Mohler was arrested and confessed the crime, and later the destruction of the barns. He was found insane and committed to Lima state hospital.

A reward of $500 offered for discovery of his wife's body was recently paid in probate court.

Mohler will never recover his sanity, according to Dr. Charles Clark, superintendent of the hospital, who has made a study of the case since Mohler has been placed in it.

The town of Quenton, Okla., has gone Republican—If signs of the times can be relied upon. Triples born last week to Gene Watson and wife have been named John, Calvin and Coolidge. The mother is 37, the father 44. Both are staunch Coolidge supporters. The Watsons have nine other children.

Attention has been called to the error which appeared in the Child Welfare association story Wednesday stating that 17 children, placed in homes by the Allen-co Welfare association, were being supported by their parents entirely. As a matter of fact, many of these 47 children being taken care of entirely by the association. Since August 17, 1922, however, 21 children have been placed in boarding homes by the association and the parents of these children are supporting them without any aid from the association.

HOME OF PASTOR IS BOMBED

Dry Crusader's Residence at Buffalo is Wrecked

BUFFALO — (Associated Press)—Rev. L. E. H. Smith, pastor of the Ontario United Presbyterian church and dry crusader for Buffalo church organizations, escaped by a few minutes bomb explosion which wrecked his home in Black Rock shortly after midnight last night.

The Smith family also was absent. A series of threatening letters had caused them to temporarily abandon the house and for more than a week they had been living with neighbors.

The pastor himself returned to his home several days ago and was on the point of leaving his office at the Ontario church last night when a telephone call informed him that his house had been wrecked. Had the explosion been delayed a few minutes, Rev. Smith said, he would have been on the premises as he had intended sleeping there.

The vestibule of the Smith home was blown back into the living room and foundation stones were hurled out of place. Houses adjoining also suffered.

Seventeen nurses from Allen-co attended the twenty-first annual convention of the Ohio State Association of Graduate Nurses at Columbus April 15, 16 and 17. While there they met Governor Donahay.

OHIO AGRICULTURAL COUNCIL ORGANIZED

Represented at the meeting were the Farm-Bureau Federation, State Grange, College of Agriculture, State Department of Agriculture, Agricultural Division of the State Department of Education and the Farm Press. Dean Alfred Vivian of the College of Agriculture of Ohio State University and Director of Agriculture Charles V. Truax acted as chairmen of the meetings.

DIDN'T SEE HAMON, PROCTOR SAYS

Cincinnati Man Testifies Before Senate OH Investigators

QUIZZED AS TO G. O. P. DEALS

Denies Communication With Late Senator Penrose

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press)—Five more witnesses were called before the senate oil committee today in its inquiry for scraps of information bearing on the inside story of the Republican national convention in Chicago in 1920.

One of them, T. A. Harmon, of Indianapolis, related a story he said had been told him by Dr. James L. Hymrod of Mooseheart, Ill., of how Leonard Wood refused to accept the support of Senator Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania on condition that Penrose could name three cabinet members. Hymrod had claimed, the witness said, that he himself had a part in the conversation.

Another of those heard by the committee was William Cooper Proctor of Cincinnati, Wood's campaign manager who denied he had conferred at Chicago with either Harry F. Sinclair or Jake L. Hamon, at that time Republican national committeeman for Oklahoma.

Proctor denied that he had communicated with the late Senator Penrose during the convention; declared he had not seen Jake L. Hamon there, and said he had not conferred during the convention with Harry F. Sinclair altho he had asked Sinclair beforehand for a campaign contribution and it had been refused.

PLAN TO NOMINATE

He had not learned until the last day of the convention, the witness said, of the plan to nominate Warren G. Harding.

"Did you see Harry Sinclair there?" asked Senator Walsh.

"Yes, I did see him."

"Was he something of a factor there?"

"Not that I know of."

"Did you talk to him about General Wood?"

"Not at the convention. I talked to him about it before in New York."

"How could he help?"

"Well, he was an influential man and could have helped financially at least."

Sinclair in March or April, 1920, had spoken in a friendly way about Wood's campaign but "would not contribute."

Senator Walsh pressed Proctor as to why he did not see Sinclair at the Chicago convention.

"I did not have a conference with him in Chicago," Proctor said.

"Why, I don't know."

"Did you confer with A. T. Hart (Lowden's manager) or Harry Daugherty (Harding's manager) at Chicago?"

"I conferred with Mr. Hart but not with Mr. Daugherty."

CHICAGO MAN CALLED

The witness excused and the committee called L. W. Dixon, a Chicago telegraph operator who said he operated the private wire between Chicago and Senator Penrose's sick room in Philadelphia during the convention period. Dixon said a cipher was used and "men's names were carried in some other designation."

There also was a private telephone wire.

"Just what was it Senator Penrose expected to accomplish at Chicago as you gathered it from the messages?" asked Senator Walsh.

"I suppose Senator Penrose was interested in seeing a certain candidate nominated," the witness said.

"The senator's representative was John T. King. I assume the senator was trying to eliminate certain prominent candidates so as to bring his candidate to the front later."

"What candidate did he desire to eliminate?"

"Well there was General Wood and Governor Lowden and also Senator Johnson, they were the prominent ones."

"Did you learn of a conference on the night before Senator Harding was nominated?"

"Oh, I think everybody knew the conference was on."

"Everybody except Colonel Proctor?" remarked Senator Walsh, and excused the witness.

ANOTHER OPERATOR CALLED

John B. Alcorn, a telegraph operator of Terre Haute, Ind., then testified that he also worked at Penrose headquarters in Chicago. He had been told by the city editor of a Chicago paper that a man was wanted at Penrose headquarters for telegraph work, he said.

"This was about six o'clock on the day before Harding was nominated," he continued. "The city editor told me there was to be a nomination the next day and that Penrose would make the man."

Alcorn said he went to the Penrose headquarters two hours later and worked there practically all night. He operated a wire for his newspapers. Asked if he could tell what had gone on, on the Penrose wire, the witness said he had been unable to get a word to make a readable sentence but he did hear the name "Harding" several times along about two a. m.

T. A. Harmon of Indianapolis was called to tell of a conversation he had with Dr. James L. Hymrod of Mooseheart, Ill., attached to Wood headquarters at the convention. Senator Walsh explained that Hymrod himself had telegraphed he could not appear because of his health and had no information of importance.

Harmon testified Hymrod had told him of a telephone conversation between General Wood and Senator Penrose about 9:30 o'clock on the night before Harding was nominated.

Dr. Hymrod told me that he was a confidential worker for General Wood, really a mouthpiece for General Wood. At 9:30 the telephone bell rang and he answered it. A voice came over the telephone that Senator Penrose wanted to speak with General Wood.

"Wood told Hymrod he would not speak himself but would authorize Hymrod to take the answer."

"Then the voice said, 'Will you ask General Wood if he is nominated tomorrow would he give us three cabinet officers?' Hymrod turned to Wood and told him."

"As I understand Hymrod, General Glenn was there, only the three persons were there—General Wood, General Glenn and Hymrod. While Hymrod was waiting for Wood to answer, General Glenn said now general, one word will make you president. General Wood then turned to Hymrod and said to tell Senator Penrose he had made no promises and would make 9999. The answer came back, 'very well, I'm sorry, we intend to see that a Republican president is elected and we want the privilege of naming three cabinet officers.'"

LIMA COUPLE MARRIED AT MONROE

A culmination of a romance of high school days was the marriage of Miss Pauline Kagenman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Wagenman, 529 W. Grand-av., and Robert DeVoe, son of Mrs. Ollie DeVoe, 429 S. Jackson-st., which was solemnized in Monroe, Mich., Wednesday. Announcement of the marriage comes as a complete surprise to the friends of the young couple.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of South High school with the class of 1921 and were quite prominent in high school affairs. Mr. DeVoe was prominent in high school athletics and is now president of the South High School Alumni Association. His bride is treasurer of the organization.

Mr. and Mrs. DeVoe are making their home with the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Ollie DeVoe, for the present. After June 1, they will be at home to their friends at 815 N. Baxter-st.

Mrs. Phil M. Crow, prominent club woman, has recently received word that one of her pictures, which was exhibited at the annual exhibit of the Society of Independent Artists in New York city some time ago, has been sold. The picture was "Rising Tide" and was painted by Mrs. Crow during her stay in Provincetown, Mass., last summer.

About 700 artists are members of this Independent artists association and each sent to the exhibit on an average of two pictures. It is quite an honor that one of Mrs. Crow's pictures was among those sold.

Miss Claudine Gross, W. Market-st., and Miss Mildred Burkhardt, W. Elm-st., are spending the week-end with Miss Evelyn Hinkle of Celina.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: Could you please tell us how to make our hair lighter? It is light, but we would like to have it of a golden tint. Not bleached, however.

When going to a semi-formal dance, would you wear a formal dress or a dark silk crepe, not fancy, but all right?

Do you think it cheapens a girl in the fellow's eyes to let her wear a light dress? I don't mean to practice but just occasionally.

What do the following names mean: Howard, John, Nora, Clark, Gustavus and Bernice?

In there anything we can do to make our eyes sparkle without injuring them?

TWO COZ. White of eggs and lemon juice are fine for light hair. They do not have the destructive effect of a bleach, but they do keep light hair light. And that is what you want, isn't it? After the regular cleansing of soap and water, use a mixture of the white of eggs and lemon juice, in equal proportions. After rubbing the mixture in well, spray it with clear water. Be sure and get all the egg out or it will make the hair sticky. Dry in the sun if possible.

If you have an evening dress, I'd advise wearing it. At a semi-formal dance, the women usually wear evening dress while the men do not.

I certainly do. Girls are not supposed to let boys kiss them, until they are engaged. It is extremely wrong.

Howard means head of an army; John means gift of God; Nora means honorable; Clark means illustrious; Gustavus means hero and Bernice means fresh.

No, I would not advise putting anything in your eyes to make them sparkle. You are very liable to injure them.

Dear Miss Smart: I am 15 years old and in the sophomore year at high school. Am I too old for that grade? I am five feet, three and one half inches tall. How much should I weigh?

Do you think it is all right for married women to bob their hair? How long will bobbed hair remain in style? Is it all right for me to go to a show with a boy? When a boy asks to take you home and you do not wish for his company, what should you say to him in order not to offend him?

What days did the following dates come on: July 14, 1905 and November 29, 1901?

What is the most popular sport skating or dancing?

Thanking you in advance, I am, X. Y. Z.

No, you are in the correct grade for your age. You should weigh about 118 pounds.

Yes, I think it is all right for the younger married women to bob their hair, but sometimes it seems rather ridiculous for the older ones, especially the "grandmothers," to have their hair bobbed. Don't you think so? I think the bobbed hair is here to stay, don't you?

Only occasionally. X. Y. Z., and then, only with your mother's consent. Merely say that you aren't going home for a while, or that you have an errand or two to do.

July 14, 1905, was on a Tuesday and November 29, 1901, came on Friday.

Personally, I think most people enjoy dancing than skating. Do you agree?

Dear Miss Smart: Please answer my question for me. There is a young man who writes me letters and asks me to love him. I don't know him. My girl friend knows him but won't introduce him as she says she is afraid "I'll take him away from her. She doesn't go with him only seldom. He walks out of his way sometimes just to pass me and my girl friend tells me this. That makes me more anxious than ever to meet him as I know he is a nice fellow. Please tell me what to do to meet him. He knows my name but I don't know his. Would it be all right to write him a note and ask him to visit my home?

No. Wait until you are properly introduced before inviting him to your home. It is very silly of your friend to act as she does and very wrong. Perhaps you have another mutual acquaintance who could introduce you. But, wait until you have a proper introduction.

Majestic—"Only a Boy" with "Star" cast.
Quilna—"Shadows of Paris" with Pola Negri.
Sigma—"The Love Master" with Strongheart.
Lyric—"After the Ball" with Marion Lawrence and Gaston Glass.
Orpheum—"Billy Maine's Overseas Revue."

BY GERTRUDE GILLHAM
Strongheart, the wonder dog, is preparing for the remainder of the week at the Sigma theatre in his latest vehicle, "The Love Master." In addition to doing the finest work he has ever done on the screen, he is giving a place as star against four comedians each one of whom shows a quality which destined them to the top rank of film favorites within a short time.

John Rich, Harold Austin, Lady and a youngster, who wasn't made, are the four who are giving screen laurels every time "The Love Master" is flashed on the screen.

The story which is a tale of love and villainy in the Canadian wilds, is written especially for Strongheart by Laurence Trimble, his producer. Strongheart, who has his first appearance in the long scene and retires only to the fade-out to one of his sons, "The Love Master" is preceded by comedy and "Fun from the Press" will be replaced on Sunday by "Why Men Leave Home" with Lewis and Helene Chadwick.

At the Quilna

The Pola Negri of "Passion" has landed in the Paramount production of "Shadows of Paris," the Quilna's attraction Friday and Saturday, the star once more comes into her own. She is quite her old self as Claire, leader of the Apache bands of the Parisian underworld. Then there is Charles de Roche as her Apache lover, who is called away to war and lastly reported killed. Huntling Gordon as Raoul whom Claire, posing as a Polish war widow, marries; and Adolphe Menjou as Raoul's secretary and friend—all are featured and all give excellent portrayals.

The story is one of the upper and lower world of Paris. It is a colorful and appealing tale, an adaptation of the French play, "Mon Homme," by the author of "Kiki."

Garth Hughes and Vera Reynolds head the supporting cast. Quilna News, which is a combination of Pathé and International, Aesop's Fables and a funny Charlie Murray comedy, are added features.

Walter Hiers, the famous screen comedian, comes to the Quilna Sunday for four days in his latest Paramount comedy, "Fair Week."

Wesley Barry Coming

Wesley Barry, the lad of freckle fame, "Spec" O'Donnell, who in an actual count runs him a close second, and "Baby" Guerin, who hasn't grown a single freckle yet in his four years on earth, have the principal roles in "The Country Kid" which opens Saturday at the Lyric theatre.

In the picture Wesley plays the part of Ben Applegate, a young boy left alone in the world, with two younger brothers to support and take care of. It is a long grim fight that Ben puts up to keep intact the old home and impoverished farm that shelters his orphaned brothers, Joe and Andy. Ben is at once mother, father and brother to the younger kids.

But things do not turn out so well for the Applegate boys, and the worries of making both ends meet blot out almost everything from Ben's mind. Their uncle, old Grimes, a graying, heartless man, taking advantage of the privilege allowed him as guardian, spends many hours scheming how he can get the young boys out of the way, and then buy the farm for a song.

He finally hits upon the idea of sending the two younger boys to the orphanage, making Ben work for him, and then buy the farm. But they are saved by friends whom they do not count upon and the plot of their mean old uncle is foiled.

Others in the cast are Kate Tomeray, Helen Jerome Eddy, George Nichols and Edward Burns. The story was written directly for the screen by Julien Josephson, who wrote so many of Wesley Barry's previous successes.

At the Orpheum

"Somewhere in France" returned to the New Orpheum theatre for the balance of the week at the Thursday matinee. This popular production was given here earlier in the season and is one of the high spots of the year's schedule.

An added feature for the Friday evening performance is a Millinery Show in which members of the cast will be used as models in the presenting of the latest spring and summer hats. Any woman in the audience will be permitted to try them on.

Marshall Walker & Co. will open the summer stock season here Sunday.

pet dog might live, says he is willing to believe in the old axiom. Shaefer, on Wednesday night, suffered the loss of his dwelling, which burned with the contents, entailing a loss of more than $1,000. Shaefer lived in a modest little residence on a small tract of land near Continental.

Now, with his large family of children, he is left homeless. All that he has is the small tract of land.

PAVING HEARING DATE IS SET

County Aid in Improvement of Avenues Sought

Hearing in a petition filed by property owners for paving Central-av and St. Johns-av, from E. Kibby-st to Pine-st will be held before the county commissioners Saturday.

Citizens owning homes along the street are asking the county to pave a strip 18 feet wide in the center of the street. They promise to pay for the remainder of the street.

Fire Chief John Mack, who is father of the proposal to pave the avenue, announced Friday that he has the signatures of every resident on the street save one man who lives in California and the school board. Signature of the board may not be needed. Central-av runs into St. Johns one block south of Kibby, and extends to the southeast. The thoroughfare is an old country road and for that reason is entitled to receive county money for its improvement.

There is no car line on the portion to be paved. For that reason, petitions point out, it will divert a large part of the motor traffic which now goes over Pine-st.

BUILDING PERMITS SHOW DECREASE, $4,850 ISSUED

Building permits providing for improvements totalling $1,800 were issued by the city Friday.

Work was begun on a home by Mrs. Liddie Hoagland at 1500 S. Main-st. It is a five room residence and is being built at a cost of $2,500.

Other permits were to P. E. Dohbins, 222 S. Main-st. garage, $100; George Durnbaugh, 756 Greenlawn-av. garage, $800; George H. Huenbaugh, 527 E. Eureka-st. garage, $150.

H. D. Parvish, 416 Hazel-av. remodel house, $100; Alvin Crumrine, 1022 Huchec-av. remodel residence, $500; Charles Bird, 518 E. Eureka-st. remodel residence, $400.

METHODIST STUDENTS GATHER AT LOUISVILLE

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — Delegates representing 110,000 Methodist students in colleges and universities of the United States gathered here today in national conference to study "Methodism's part in the world task and how we, as students, may relate ourselves to that task."

Statement of facts concerning world problems, Methodism's plan for solution—open forum—discussions and recommendations of students, constitute the announced general mode of procedure. One thousand student delegates are expected to attend the three day assembly.

The conference has no connection with any other organization.

This old tree kept its secret well. But inquisitive boys, playing around its trunk, discovered a cleverly concealed opening down at the base. Prohibition Agent John Marcum crawled thru the hole and discovered considerable moonshine had been cached within the massive sycamore. All this in the exclusive Highlands residential district in Louisville, Ky. Federal authorities say it was a supply station for rum-running automobiles. Roy White, upon whose property the tree stands, was arrested.

CITY NOT SPONSOR ANNUAL CLEANUP DRIVE

Altho the county is conducting a general cleanup campaign, the city will not hold a similar drive this spring, Health Commissioner J. B. Poling said Friday.

May 1 is generally the day "spring cleaning" begins, he said. The city, however, will not enforce a cleanup drive this year.

"Only in extreme cases," Poling said, "will we enforce individuals to clean up their houses and yards. We are leaving it up to the individual whether he conducts his own private cleanup campaign or not. If he has any civic pride he will do it without being told."

An orchard pruning demonstration was given Friday afternoon at the farm of W. M. Stodt, 2 1-2 miles north of Lafayette, by H. J. Ridge, county agricultural extension agent.

PRICES OF FOOD ON DECREASE

Figures Given Out by Department of Labor

FIVE PER CENT DROP SHOWN

Quotations of March Are Compared With February

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Wholesale and retail food prices decreased in March as compared with February. Department of labor figures made public today showed the index for wholesale prices of 404 commodities was 150 for March against 152 for February. A four per cent drop in farm product prices as a whole for March from the preceding month was attributed to declines in cotton, corn, eggs, hides, wheat, oats, and potatoes and tobacco. The labor department also disclosed a decline of 5.1 per cent in all commodities in March 1924 from March 1923.

Retail food price statistics made public by the department of commerce showed an average decline of two per cent for the month due largely to the drop in egg quotations.

Decreases were given as follows: Eggs, 30 per cent; butter, four per cent; sirloin steak, rib roast, chuck roast, pork chops, canned corn and sugar each one per cent. The average family expenditure for food decreased four per cent from February 15 to March 15 in New York, three per cent in Cleveland and two per cent in Cincinnati.

TWELVE AFTER POSITION AS ELECTRICAL INSPECTOR CREATED UNDER NEW CODE

With 12 applications filed with Acting City Manager Harold Cunningham to take the civil service examination for the position of electrical inspector, and with no date set for the examination, the electrical inspection ordinance became a law Thursday, 19 days after its passage.

City Manager Bingham, who is to set the date for the examination and appoint the inspector afterward is out of the city, and will not return until Monday, April 21. Salary of the inspector is to come out of inspection fees, and is set at $2,000 a year. His duty is to inspect for anything electrical that is to be installed in any home, factory or place of business.

The ordinance also provides for the inspection of wiring in all buildings in the city, at least once every two years.

STOCK MARKETS CLOSED TODAY

Holiday Taken in Observance of Good Friday

NEW YORK — (Associated Press) — With the closing of all security and commodity exchanges in observance of Good Friday, the financial district today lost its customary bustling activity. The banks remained open, inasmuch as it was not a legal holiday, but the quietness of the street promised to provide little in the way of financial transactions. The New York stock exchange and the curb market will resume business tomorrow for the usual half session. The cotton exchange and coffee and sugar exchange will be closed until Monday.

CHICAGO — The Chicago stock exchange, security and commodity markets were closed today in observance of Good Friday. The banks and the money and foreign exchange markets were open as usual. The usual Saturday business hours will be observed tomorrow.

Market News and Gossip

Federal reserve reports show that loans have been reduced and at the same time gold and total reserves have increased to approximately 115 percent above legal requirements.

Markets in all the principal cities of the United States closed Friday, the day being Good Friday.

Chesapeake and Ohio has ordered a large amount of equipment. The Pullman Co. Liberty Car & Equipment Co. and the Illinois Car & Manufacturing Co. have already received orders. Distribution of 100 locomotives have not been announced by the railway.

With the unfilled orders of the U. S. Steel Co. larger, it is announced that approximately one-third of the orders are for railroad accounts.

Directors of Westinghouse & Co. have voted to increase the capital stock of the company to $200,000,000 thru an increase of $75,000,000 in the common stock. None will be placed on the market or otherwise disposed of at the present time. Stockholders will vote on the proposition at the annual meeting.

Inquiries are in the market for 45 locomotives, Seaboard Airline wanting 30 and the New York, New Haven & Hartford desiring 15.

Negotiations with the United Cigar Stores are still under way. David Schulte, president of the Schulte stores, has announced. Profits are on the increase, he asserts.

Freight car loadings dropped 45,452 during the week ending April 5, car service reports show. Decrease in coal loadings and storms and floods helped bring about the decrease.

It's to be put in his museum of railway antiques in New York. During the Civil War the old engine saw service in Florida. J. J. McDonough, Savannah railroad and machinery man, later bought it and used it for some years. Ford paid $2600 for it.

ROMAN AMPHITHEATER FOUND BY EXCAVATORS

PHILIPPOPOLIS, Bulgaria — Archaeologists are stirred by the discovery of what is evidently a Roman amphitheatre in the city square Djumata.

The workmen were digging foundations for a new structure when four meters below the surface of the square they came upon a flight of marble stairs of massive construction and surface worn smooth by the tread of many feet. Officials summoned from the museum were by their preliminary opinion that these marble steps, a little less than a meter wide, were the aisle of an amphitheatre. The archaeologists of the Ethnological Museum at Sofia will make further inquiries and possibly continue the excavation.

You would listen

IF A MAN buttonholed your coat and told you to listen, you would listen—though he talked only of trivial things.

Advertisements use more courteous means to engage you. They know you are busy and await their turn—though what they have to say is important.

The full-page advertisement, the tiniest advertisement—each has its definite message. News of varieties, prices, economies; of wares you can select wisely and purchase with utmost confidence. News packed into as few words as possible so as not to rob you of time.

They offer only the best. Inferior goods couldn't stand up under such public inspection. They urge you to buy the best—to realize the savings made, the steps saved, the satisfaction gained through reading advertisements and buying advertised goods.

Give them audience—the large and the small. What they say profits you. That's why they say it
